HOW TO ROB BANKS. LEGALLY.

Make 21% On Your Money. Guaranteed No Risk By The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Earn $100,000 or more with deposits of less than $20.

By Louis Kennelworth
Attorney at Law

My name is Louis Kennelworth, and I'm a lawyer. If what I'm about to tell you were not 100% true, I'd get disbarred and probably thrown into jail. So obviously every word, every piece of advice I have put into print is absolutely true and completely legal.

In these hard times of inflation, we need all the help we can get.

The bank presidents will hate me for this. But I'm going to lay it right on the line. Whatever amount of money ($10. a week or $1,000 a week) you put into your savings account I can show you how to double, triple, even quadruple what it would ordinarily earn in interest. (All without risking a single penny.)

Crazy? Not at all. But that's only the beginning. Here are a couple of other amazing facts I've uncovered.

★ Amazing fact: You can actually earn triple the amount of savings in one bank as in another. Even though both banks offer the same exact rate of interest.

★ Amazing fact: You can earn 6¼% interest on an ordinary passbook savings account.

★ Amazing fact: You can actually use your credit cards to make extra money.

★ Amazing fact: Your dollars can be earning interest on weekends . . . after you've already withdrawn them.

How on Earth are these things possible? Simply by following the easy-to-understand plan I've outlined in what I believe is one of the most informative, useful money-making books ever published.

This is the book that tells it all. All the important proven financial secrets you need to stay ahead of inflation. Many of these secrets are so fantastic you won't believe they're possible until you put them into practice.

Just to give you an idea:

You can actually pay bills by check from your savings account and still earn interest on money that isn't there.

And did you know: If you know how, you can actually make more money banking by mail than you can in person?

Now in case you're worried about the banks. Please don't! Believe me they can afford it. Banks make billions with depositor's money. They make far more lending your money to commercial borrowers and mortgators than they ever pay to you, their depositors.

It's that fat cushion between what the banks get and what they pay that enables banks to offer you "inducements" such as compound interest, high rates in special issues, day-of-deposit-to-day-of withdrawal accounts, bonus days, bank gifts, and so on.

Earn $100,000 or more with deposits of less than $20.

All you have to do is know how to take advantage of these "inducements" and the fine print in banking laws (and believe me I show you how easy it is!). You can pile up a fortune — actually $100,000 or more, on what amounts to weekly deposits of less than $20. And, the beautiful part is: You're not speculating! You're not gambling! You're not risking one red cent! Because you're putting your money in the safest place in the world: An American bank. And, even if it should fail (which is almost impossible today), your savings are protected by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The only question that remains is: How long can you afford not to do something about it? All you need to know is How! And it's all right there in my book. The information, the methods and techniques, the step-by-step game plan. It's all there for you! In simple straight forward language, complete with illustrations. Easy to understand for anyone with a fifth grade education.

Powerful interests would love to "Coverup" this information.

Obviously this is a book the banks would love to prohibit. Many powerful interests would love to suppress and "coverup" this information if they could. But fortunately it's still a free country. And if there's a way you can fight inflation with much bigger returns on your savings, you're entitled to know about it.

Now at last, I've made this inside information available to you through THE INSIDER'S MAILBOX. The cost to you is only $10.00, and you don't risk a single penny of that.

NO RISK GUARANTEE. YOU CAN'T LOSE ONE PENNY.

If my book, How To Rob Banks. Legally., hasn't more than paid for itself many times over in just 30 days, return it to me for a full money back refund.

Claude Vignec, physical training expert says:

Fitness is my business

I RECOMMEND BULLWORKER BECAUSE IT'S FAST, IT'S EASY AND IT REALLY WORKS!

Most men know they're not getting enough exercise to keep their bodies in good shape.

However unless their careers depend on it (like professional athletes, actors, etc.), it's been my experience that most men will not continue with a regular training program long enough for it to do them much good unless the training is fast, easy and shows results right away.

Bullworker training gets a top score on all three counts:

—it's fast: each exercise takes only 7 seconds and the complete workout can be done in about five minutes

—it's easy: most men between 15 and 65 in good general health can run through the full program without getting tired

—you see your improvement right from the very first day on the built-in Powermeter. After about two or three weeks of regular training, most men can measure an extra inch or two of muscle on the shoulders, the chest, the biceps—and an inch or two less flab around the waistline.

And that's just the beginning: there are specialized exercises for building-up or trimming down any part of your body you want to. What's more, since Bullworker training is progressive, you perform better each time. Yet the training always seems easy since with every workout your strength increases by about 1%—that's an increase of up to 50% in just three months, and I've seen many men go on to double and even triple their strength.

It's my opinion that Bullworker is the most advanced home trainer on the market today. I use it and recommend it to any man who wants to get back into shape fast.

HERE'S WHAT'S HAPPENING, BABY!

By Bill Apter

THE NATIONAL WRESTLING ALLIANCE title changed hands for five minutes when the vicious Mongolian Stomper pinned Jack Brisco.

With Brisco on his way to a victory, Stomper's advisor, Bearcat Wright, decided to distract the referee so his man could foul Brisco. The plan worked perfectly. Stomper kicked Brisco in the groin—while Wright had the referee's attention.

When the referee returned to the action, he saw Stomper's body pressing Brisco. Jack was counted out and the title belonged to Stomper.

All looked well until Bob Armstrong and Dick Slater came in and told the referee what had happened. The official reversed the decision and the belt is back around Brisco's waist.

"I'm damn mad!" Wright exclaimed after the match. "Look. Nobody should ask how the race was won. They should just see that Stomper crossed the finish line first. It does not matter how. He crossed it. That's all baby!

"There is a conspiracy against myself and the Mongolian Stomper. I intend to take this matter up before the National Wrestling Alliance. We were robbed. My man is the champion and we demand that belt!"

Dennis Stamp and Louis Tillet are the new Americas tag team champions after a victory over the Hollywood Blonds . . . John Tolos is in Texas after losing a "loser-leave-town match" in California . . . Abdullah the Butcher and The Sheik teamed again—and split again—violently. That's about the third time they've tried teaming. We think they'll never work it out.

Al Madrill is exciting Texas fans with his high flying style. . .Jerry Lawler and Don Greene say, "Our bodies are so beautiful we now want to be known as 'Wrestling's Heavenly Bodies' "... Dick Murdoch anxious to team with Dusty Rhodes again but Dusty's tied up in tag matches with partner Billy Graham at the moment . . . George "Crybaby" Cannon claiming, "I've got the greatest wrestler in the world, Eric the Red. He will win the heavyweight title for me. I'm sure of that!" . . .Spiros Arion was fined 500 dollars in Pennsylvania for hitting an official!

A red hot feud has developed between Pedro Morales and the Von Brauner twins.

"Not only are they two of the most animalistic wrestlers I've ever come up against," Pedro reports, "but that manager, Gerhart Kaiser, is one hell of a troublemaker. I want to rid the sport of these guys. They don't belong in wrestling with their tactics. They belong in cages!"

"Captain" Lou and the Valiants have been inked to a recording contract by a major record company!

"The Captain can dance, the Captain can sing," Albano bragged. "My Valiants can do the same," he added. "We will be bigger than Sammy Davis, Frank Sinatra, and Tom Jones. The Valiants are headed for stardom!"

It's up for a vote. The major alliances are seriously thinking about banning the heart punch. The move will probably hurt the careers of Ox Baker and Stan Stasiak, two men who use it perfectly.

"It won't hurt me!" Stasiak claims. "I've got other holds. I am not a one hold man like Sammartino or guys in his class. But even if it's banned I will probably use it. I don't mind getting disqualified if I'm enjoying myself while trying to kill an opponent. I don't mind it one bit."

"They can't ban it!" Ox Baker exclaims. "I'll sue every commission that tries to ban it. They

REPORTS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

FLORIDA REPORTS
By T.G. Nathan

HARLEY RACE WAS unsuccessful in his latest attempt to wrest the National Wrestling Alliance title kingpin Jack Brisco.

The match began scientifically. Both men sized each other up quickly and they began exchanging holds and counter holds. It was a classic display of wrestling. But when Brisco began getting the better of things Race resorted to his all too familiar style of roughhousing.

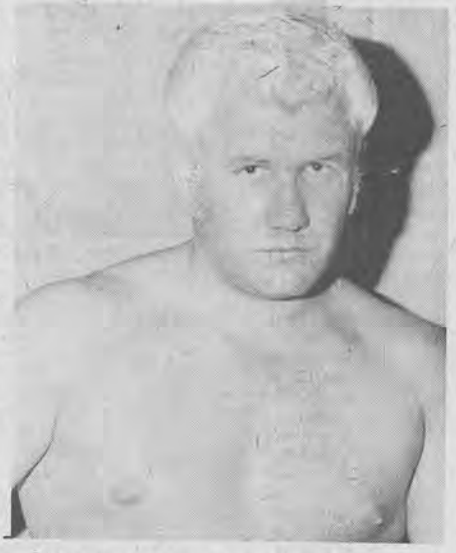
Harley was vicious as he fouled Brisco at every opportunity. Finally, with the champion in big trouble, Race climbed the ropes and came crashing down on the helpless Brisco. It was all over.

No. Jack didn't lose the title. Race was disqualified for jumping off the ropes.

"I swear!" Race exclaimed to our reporter after the match. "They think up rules against me every time I wrestle Jack Brisco. I can beat him if they'd only give me a fair opportunity!"

Dick Murdoch and Bob Roop, once friends and now bitter enemies, had it out in a bloody brawl that went to a no-contest when both were counted out for battling outside the ring.

A new tag team combination of Mike Graham and Tiger Conway thoroughly thrilled fans as they took the measure of Joe Soto and Doug Somers.



Irish Pat Barrett continues to grow in popularity by defeating the men the fans so deeply hate . . . Young French Canadian star Rick Martel is making his mark in the South and is notching an impressive victory list . . . Fans waiting to see Dick Murdoch bring Dusty Rhodes back as his partner to get rid of Bob Roop, Jim Dillon and other hated wrestlers.

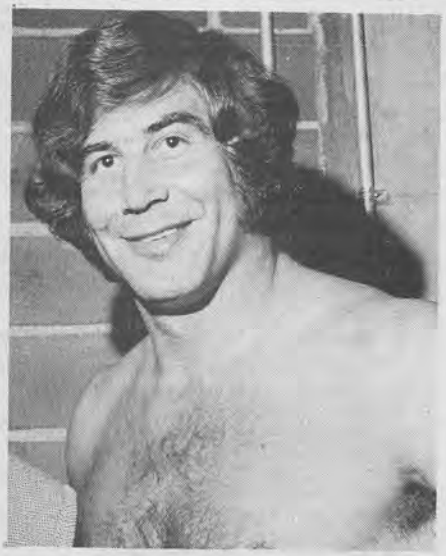
GEORGIA GRAPPLIN'
By Eddie Gilbert

Mr. Wrestling II has started a special training regimen and thus far has refused to reveal exactly what he has in mind to gain revenge against the man who almost ended his career, Professor Tanaka.

"If I reveal my plans," the mysterious masked man said, "Tanaka. will go ahead and train accordingly. I don't want that to happen. I intend to make him lie in the hospital for 25 days to every one I spent."

Dusty Rhodes, the "American Dream," has returned and fans are glad he's here. Dusty's been gone for a long time—too long. Since changing his attitude, he's one of the most popular wrestlers ever seen in these parts.

A newcomer to Georgia wrestling wars is young star Tommy Gilbert. Tommy is undefeated in Georgia and is after Bob Orton Jr.'s Georgia junior heavyweight title.



"A win over Orton and that belt will make all the difference in my career," the enthused Gilbert feel. "That belt means the world to me."

Don Greene and Jerry Lawler, calling themselves "Wrestling's Heavenly Bodies," have declared all out war on Dusty Rhodes, Rocky Johnson and Jerry Brisco, among others. "Let's get rid of the garbage," Lawler said. "It's about time Georgia fans started seeing real talent for a change!"

1. It Concentrates its Slimming Action On Your Fatty Areas, Waist, Hips, Upper Thighs, that give you an aging look. It's Fun With Results.....''5'' Minutes And Out.

THE SECRET WHY IT BEATS FASTING ALONE, MAKING YOUR FIGURE LOOK YEARS YOUNGER.

Fasting programs, when causing weight loss, unlike our plan usually burn off more active tissue (muscles) which can cause your skin to wrinkle, muscles to sag and create dragging fatigue. Our Plan increases active tissue growth—through the use of the '5' Minute exerciser—while concentrating greater fat loss by (exercise and temporary 20 percent food reduction) making you look years younger as you slim. Within the first '5' minutes you use the exerciser, you start burning off fat, speeding up your metabolism to help burn up stored calories, releasing excess water. Helps curb your appetite without suppressants. Increases energy and well being. It's so simple and enjoyable a plan to follow, we guarantee you can stay with it remaining slim without re-gaining those inches and pounds. It can put an end to your "gain-and-loss-cycles".

USE OUR '5' MINUTE BODY SHAPER PLAN FOR 14 DAYS AND WE GUARANTEE YOU THESE RESULTS:

"You Will Lose Inches and Pounds. Improve Your Vitality, Energy, Fitness, Posture, Work Off Body Tensions, Feel and Look Better and Younger — All To Your Satisfaction Within 14 Days — If You Follow Our Instructions — Or Your $9.95 Will Be Refunded."

EXPERTS AND CUSTOMERS AGREE:
It's the no-nonsense way to shape up fast!

Scientific reports and many of our 600,000 customers inform us that sauna wraps, inflated belts, weighted belts and other 'effortless exercisers' are of little or no value in firming, shaping and beautifying your figure. "YOU MUST WORK OFF THE INCHES," experts say. We believe, and results prove, our's is the simplest, safest, most enjoyable Plan to do it. We Guarantee It. Here's a sampling of what our slimming customers tell us that happened to them while using the Plan.

Name	Pounds Lost	Inches Lost (off waistline)	Time
G. C.	25 lbs.	5¾ in.	(14 days)
M. F.	32 lbs.	6⅜ in.	(24 days)
W. E.	15 lbs.	3 in.	(14 days)
M. B.	22 lbs.	6 in.	(21 days)
C. J.	10 lbs.	6¾ in.	(14 days)
P. O.	10 lbs.	6¼ in.	(14 days)
J. C.	10 lbs.	5 in.	(14 days)

They were measured by experts before and after 14 days. The results verified, some notarized. Your results may vary depending on how overweight you are and how much time you devote to the exerciser. The customers quoted spent 5 to 10 minutes, twice daily and reduced their food intake —temporarily—by about 20%, but none gave up the foods they love.

DO IT NOW! It's America's most successful figure shaper. 600,000 customers have purchased our '5' Minute Plan to slim down fast. Results are proven and some notarized. Our guarantee to you is in writing. Experts agree our plan works—and works fast. Now, can you think of any reason for not ordering your '5' Minute Body Shaper Plan and start slimming down today?

Satisfaction Guaranteed!

"Use our improved '5' Minute Body Shaper Plan for 14 days! See what it can do for you! If it is not what we say it is, simply return it to us, in good condition, for your $9.95 refund."

YOUR LETTERS

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

I'm writing in reponse to the letter written by Frank Cropper (INSIDE WRESTLING/April 1975), who admires the Valiants. As far as I'm concerned, the Valiants are trash!

They hold the W.W.W.F. tag team championship because of one reason—illegal tactics! When they wrestled champion Bruno Sammartino and Chief Jay Strongbow, the Valiants really took a beating. They held on to their belts only because they were disqualified.

I'm sure the Valiants can't continue retaining their title by use of disqualification. I'm also sure they'll lose some day. And the sooner they lose, the better it'll be for wrestling.

FRANK CHILLE
Blackwood, N.J.

PUBLIC OUTCRY

The public can't get the bout it wants. Why?

Every Tom, Dick, and Harry from Wildwood to Greenville and from Brooklyn to Boston wants Jay Strongbow in a winner-take-all Texas death match, no holds barred, against Bruno Sammartino.

The wrestler of 1974 was CHIEF JAY STRONGBOW and this year's top wrestler will again be Jay.

The public wants Bruno to face the one man who can beat him and his name is Strongbow!

VICTOR BRACH
Orange, N.J.

NO NEED FOR PROTECTION

In recent issues of INSIDE WRESTLING and THE WRESTLER, some wrestlers have accused the Funk brothers of being protected by referees. I think this is a bunch of nonsence and I'm tired of hearing it.

The Funks don't need protection. They can defeat Red Bastien, Jim Dillon, Baba the Giant, Pak Song, and others without the ref's help. Recently, I watched a match in Amarillo involving Dory Jr. If anything, the official was more lenient toward Dory Jr.'s opponent!

I'm sorry, all those who've fallen at the hands of the great Funk brothers. You're going to have to think of a different excuse!

BEST OF THE BEST

I greatly enjoy your magazines, INSIDE WRESTLING and THE WRESTLER.

I would also like to say I agree with many others who believe there should be only one wrestling champion. I think the five champions (N.W.A., W.W.W.F., A.W.A., N.W.F., and the newly formed I.W.A.) should have a series of matches, no disqualifications, best of three falls.

I can't say who would be the two final battlers, but it would probably be one of the greatest matches of all time, if not the greatest!

TIM LEWIS
North Myrtle Beach, S.C.

TONY TERRIFIC

I think Debra Brownawell, who wrote a beautiful letter applauding Tony Garea, is absolutely right. I agree with her 100%—Tony should be rated highly. He's not only talented, but very handsome.

Most of the blouses and shirts I wear have his name on it. He's simply

YOU ASKED US

Okay fans. You asked for it and here it is. Each month either INSIDE WRESTLING or THE WRESTLER will publish your column—"YOU ASKED US." Just jot down a question and the wrestler you'd like us to ask it to and send it to: You Asked Us, THE WRESTLER, P.O. Box 58, Rockville Centre, N.Y. 11571. Questions will be answered only in this column.

Q: Will Dory Funk Jr. ever wrestle in the A.W.A. area?—Douglas Gunn, Omaha, Nebraska.

A: "I'd like to," Dory said. "A match against champion Verne Gagne is one I sure look forward to. But at present I have no plans to go to the A.W.A. area as I'm tied up with commitments in the N.W.A."

Q: What became of former W.W.W.F. champion Stan Stasiak?—Scott Levenson, Brooklyn, New York.

A: Stasiak is active in N.W.A. territory, gunning for a shot against Jack Brisco.

Q: Now that Billy Graham has changed his ways, ask him if he will finally admit he's not as strong as Ken Patera—Scott Wilson, Boston, Massachusetts.

A: "If it were true I would admit it," Graham said. "I have a great deal of admiration for Patera's physique, but I still contend mine is better."

Q: Are there women battle royals?—Tommy Elzey, Cumming, Georgia.

A: Yes, Tommy. They're not as frequent as male battle royals and they generally have only a dozen participants.

Q: Has Ricky Romero ever thought of teaming with Dick Murdoch?—Terry Anderson, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

A: "I have thought about it," Ricky said, "and I hope someday to team with him—especially when I'm up against rule breakers. Murdoch knows all their tricks and can help me fight fire with fire."

Q

Q: Has Pat Patterson ever held the Americas title?—Pete Terret, Los Angeles, California.

A: No he hasn't.

Q: Have the Hollywood Blonds broken up?—Alan Meltzer, Bellmore, N.Y.

A: "Of course they haven't!" exclaims manager Sir Oliver Humperdink. "They will never break up because they are the greatest combination in wrestling today!"

Q: How does Thunderbolt Patterson rate Ivan Koloff?—Johnny Inman, Union, South Carolina.

A: "Very low!" T-Bolt admitted. "I rate all rule busters low. Guys like me and Ernie Ladd are at the top of the heap, baby."

Q: Is it true you have to be 18 years old to see a wrestling show at New York's Madison Square Garden? If so, why?—John Stankiewicz, Glen Lyon, Pennsylvania.

A: You've got to be at least 14 years old. The rule, set down by the state athletic commission many years ago, also applies to boxing.

Q: Who did Antonino Rocca lose the W.W.W.F. title to?—Angelo Grillo, Smithtown, New York.

A: Rocca never held the W.W.W.F. title.

Q: Ask Eddie Creatchman why The Sheik never wrestles in battle royals—Mike Eckstein, Rockaway Park, New York.

A: "He has wrestled in many battle royals and has become very rich from winning each one," Creatchman boasted. "But battle royals are a waste of time for The Sheik. He's won so many the challenge is gone."

Q: Was Baba the Giant ever a baseball player?—Pam Yemway, Miami Beach, Florida.

A: Yes. Baba played on a team called the Tokyo Giants.

Q: What ever happened to The Mummy?—Sue Sharpe, Dadeville, Alabama.

A: The Mummy still wrestles in the United States on occasion, but he is more active overseas.

Q: Does the Super Destroyer answer his fan mail?—Roderick McFadden, Danville, Virginia.

A: We doubt if the masked rule breaker has many fans, but he insists, "I've got more fans than Sammartino, Brisco, and Gagne put together. It takes my entire staff of secretaries hours upon hours to answer my fan mail. I get bundles of mail every day from my wonderful fans!"

Q: Are Dennis Stamp and Terry Funk related? They look like brothers to me—Alan Randall, West Palm Beach, Florida.

A: No. They are not related.

Q: Have Dom DeNucci and Tony Parisi split permanently?—Linda Gregory, Buffalo, New York.

A: "Not permanently," Parisi assures. "We're just wrestling in different parts of the country at the present time. We hope to team again in the near future.

Q: Were Red Bastien and Red Lyons ever tag team partners?—Kelly McFarland, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

A: Yes they were, Kelly. And they were one of wrestling's most popular duos. □

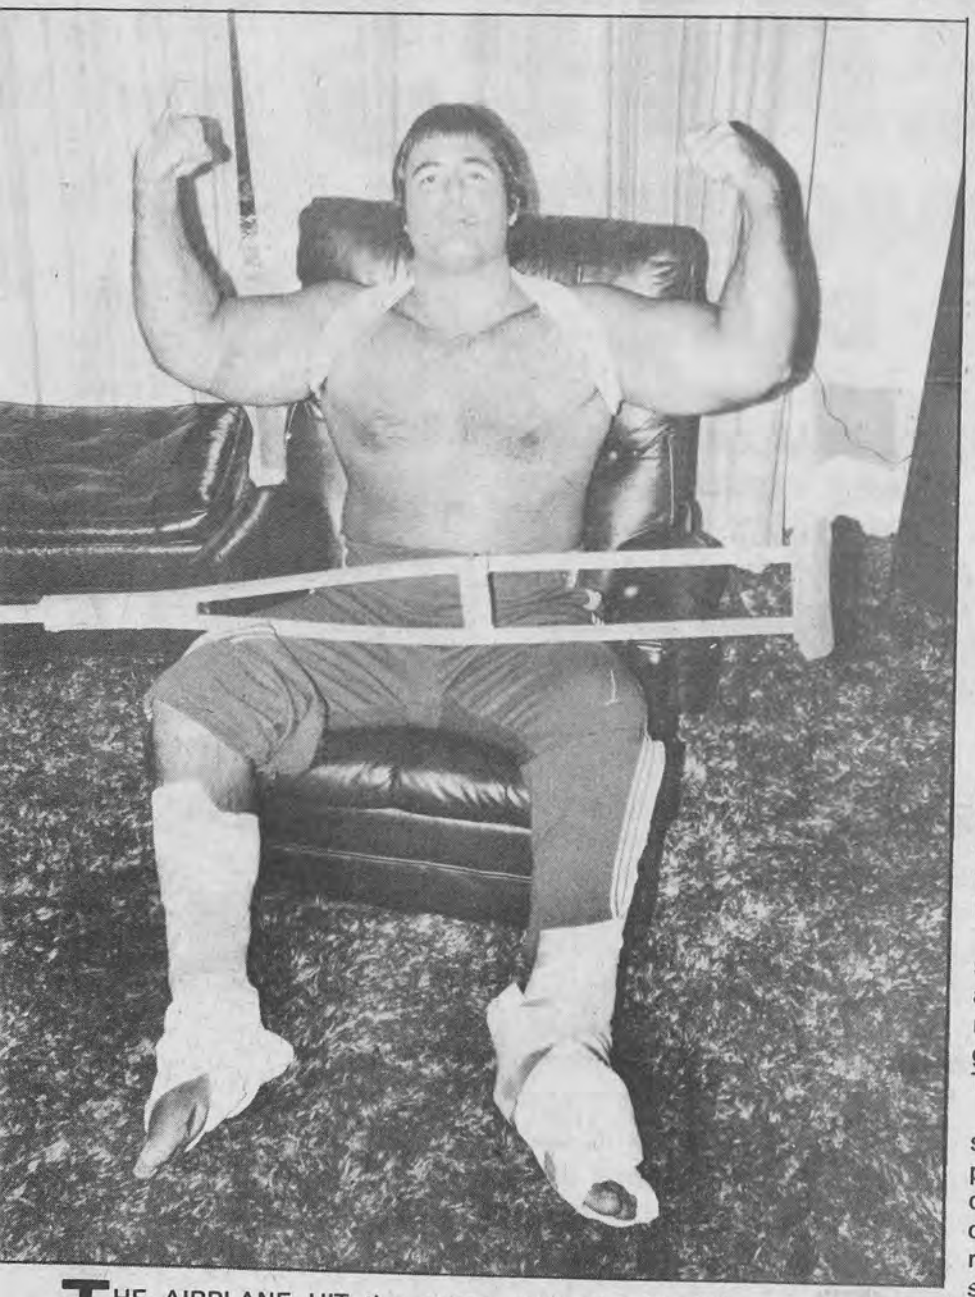
MIKE McCORD'S OWN STORY

BY MIKE McCORD AS TOLD EXCLUSIVELY TO BILL APTER

Mike McCord is one of three men, along with Gary Hart and Buddy Colt, who survived the tragic airplane crash that claimed the life of Bobby Shane. McCord, a superbly conditioned athlete, is at the crossroads of his young life. Doctors have made it clear he will never wrestle again. But McCord refuses to believe medical science. He's determined to get back on his feet and return to the competition his life thrives upon.

Here is Mike's own touching and dramatic story—from the moment of the crash to the suffering he's going through trying to live a normal, healthy life again.



Though he's swathed in bandages on his feet, McCord shows he still believes in his strength and physical abilities. The doctors don't agree with him.

THE AIRPLANE HIT the water with a sickening thud. I felt a tremendous shock go up my back. I've never felt anything like that in my entire life. I thought to myself, "We've crashed. Oh my God. I'm dead!"

My head cleared quickly and I realized the aircraft was sinking, sinking slowly. I realized I was conscious and that I've got to get out to save my life.

I was in the cockpit area and I couldn't get out. I tried but something was keeping me down. I couldn't figure out what the hell it was. Finally I realized it was my seat belt.

I reached down to unbuckle my seat belt and about that time I could actually feel the salt water going up my nose. I thought, "Oh my God I'm going under—I'm gonna drown. This is it."

For some reason or another something told me to unbuckle my pants and slip out of the seatbelt. I don't know how it happened but I did it. I slid out of them and was released. Then I swam to the surface.

As soon as I got there I noticed I was the first one to make it. Then I could see Gary Hart and Buddy Colt. Pretty soon I began calling for Bobby Shane. "Bobby! Bobby! Are you okay?" I kept calling.

I waited for an answer but I didn't hear anything. I shouted "Oh God! Bobby must be down in the water!"

I tried to dive. As a matter of fact, I managed to dive under the water. This was at night. It was pitch black outside. The water was real choppy and real murky.

I was searching for poor Bobby but I just couldn't find him. I tried twice. Then after the second attempt, I said, "I can't go down there any more. I've got to try to save myself."

We could see a light from the water. We kept swimming towards that light, realizing we were in the direction of land. That little light saved our lives. We knew in which direction to swim.

Above: McCord shows how he has learned to wrap his own bandage. Right: Mike's wife and Gary Hart and his wife offer comfort.

When we got near land Gary Hart had found this hanging ladder leading onto some people's property. It was a blessing—almost.

My feet were all messed up. I couldn't stand up. Buddy Colt's legs were shattered. He couldn't stand up either. Gary Hart had a busted arm, leg and back but somehow he could stand up. I put Gary on my shoulders. I was on my knees in that water. The water kept beating up against me, knocking my head up against the dock post.

Gary stood on my shoulders and pulled himself onto the ladder and onto the dock. Then he ran to a house nearby for help.

The people in the house wouldn't let him in. There had been a series of murders in that area and they were afraid. Well, when they saw the blood coming out of Gary's head, they finally let him in.

Believe it or not, rather than staying in the house, Gary came back out to the dock where there was a little boat. He lowered the boat into the water. Buddy and I swam to it and got in. It was a real effort on our part but the three of us just wanted to save each other. Finally ambulances came and we were rushed off to the hospital.

Since that day I have gone through nothing but pain. I'm suffering mental and physical agony. It was a miraculous thing that we survived that crash.

Right now we're all immobile. Buddy suffered gangrene poisoning in his leg. Gary, as I said before, suffered multiple injuries. As for myself, I wound up with a broken right foot and a big hunk of meat taken out of the ball of my foot. It looks like someone took an ice cream scooper and just scooped a big chunk of meat out.

That's gonna take a long time to heal because it's got to heal from the inside out. I also had a back injury and I don't really know the extent of that. It's so hard to tell in an injury like that. But I can't even get on my crutches yet. I have to crawl around on my hands and knees in the house. I just can't get up. I'll just have to wait and see how time heals.

Let's examine my condition like this. It's like taking a racehorse and cutting its legs off. It'll kill the horse because he's of no use or no value.

For me it's bad enough just being in the house all day, thinking of whether or not I'll ever be able to wrestle again. I also wonder if the foot will heal properly or be deformed. So it's a combination of physical and mental anguish.

I have trouble sleeping many nights. The crash happened at about one thirty on a Thursday morning. And it's weird because

PAT PATTERSON'S FEAR:

Pat Patterson knows his feud with Moondog Mayne must end in tragedy for one of them

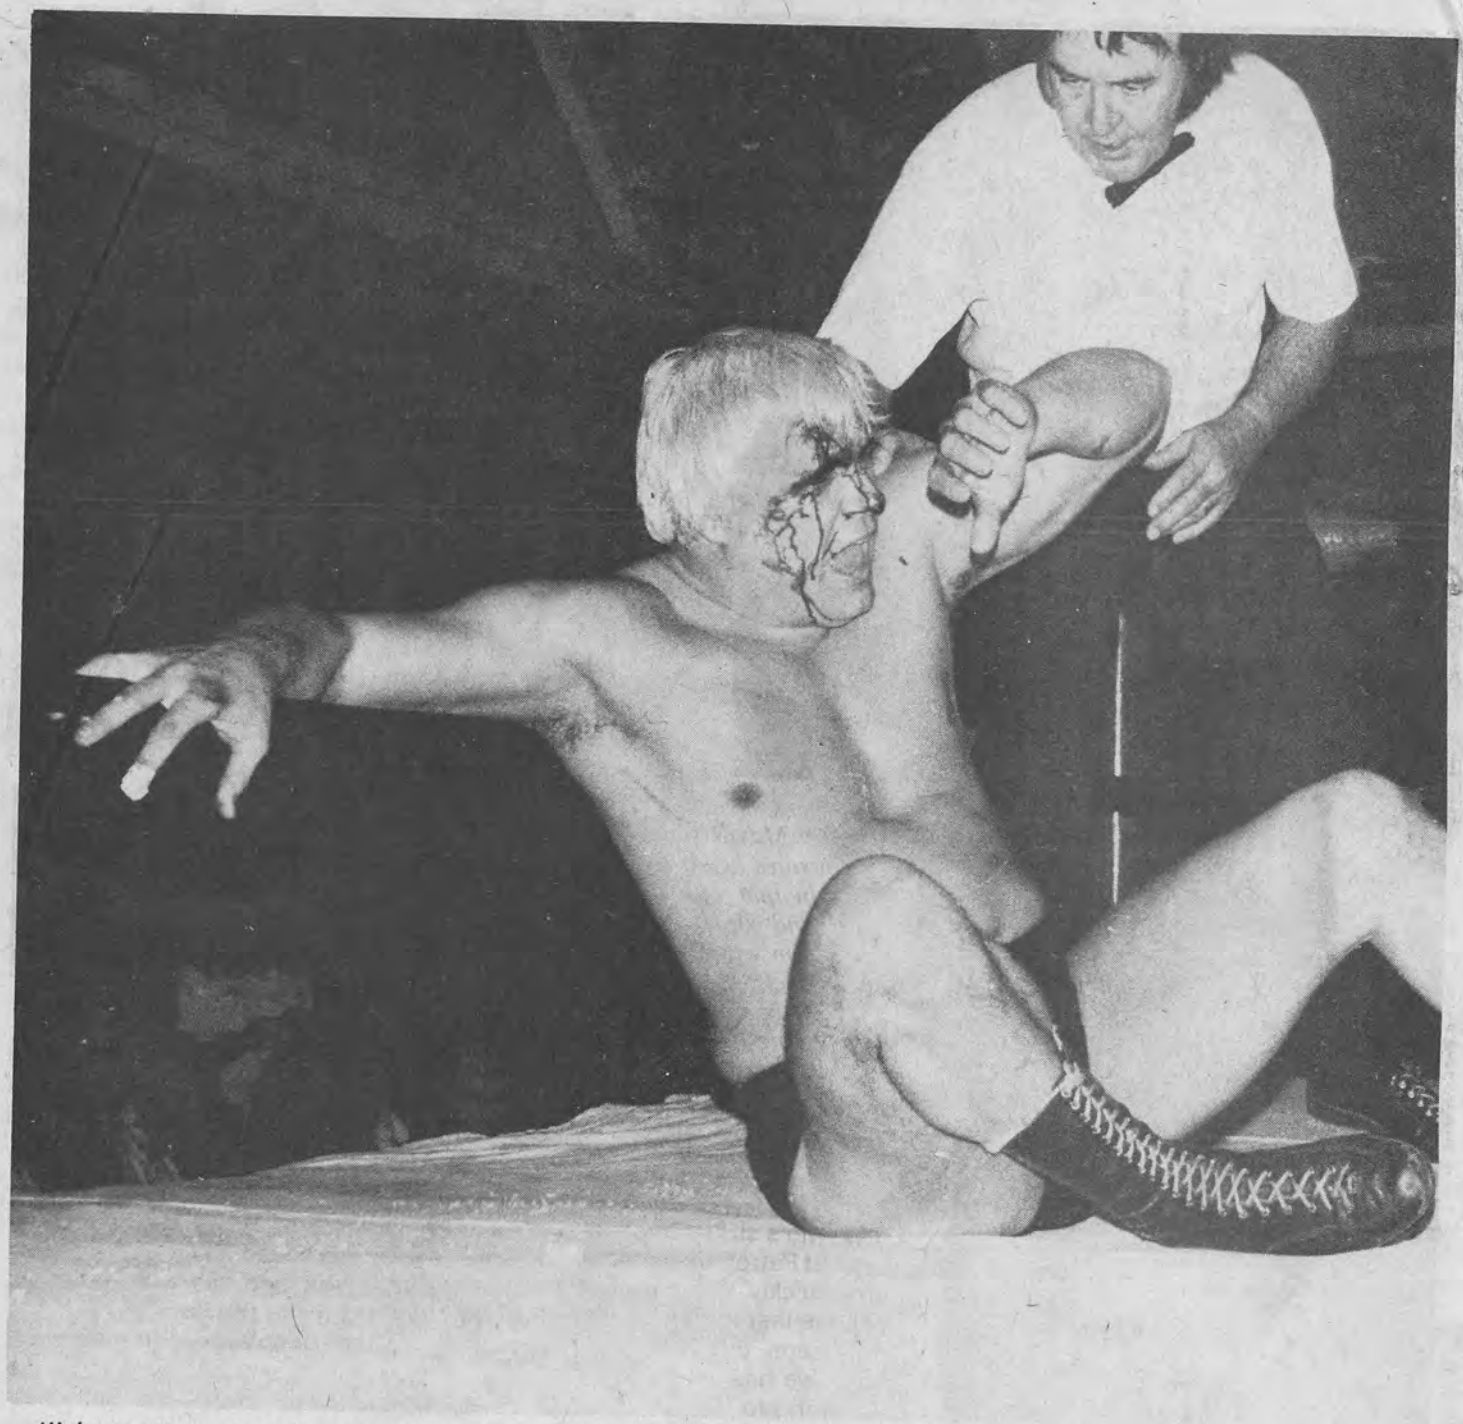
Pat Patterson is bloodied and dazed during a match with arch-enemy Moondog Mayne. Patterson realizes his blood feud with Mayne just could have a tragic ending—for Pat!!!

AS HE HAD so many times before, Pat Patterson felt the doctor's needle pierce his skin. Twelve stitches were sewn into his forehead. It made Pat feel a little better to know his despised opponent, Moondog Mayne, was undergoing similar surgery at the exact same time.

Once again Mayne and Patterson had wrestled until both were bathed in blood. Their bodies were coated with a hideous mixture of each other's blood. And once again neither man was satisfied with the results.

"MOONDOG MAYNE WILL CRIPPLE ME!"



"It's gotten to the point," Patterson said when the doctor put the last stitch into his skin, "where it's become a question of either Mayne or me. Within a year, one of us will be beaten too badly to ever wrestled again. These kinds of brutal bloodbaths can't go on indefinitely.

"Mayne is a maniac. Some da he might come into the arena with an axe and try to hack my leg off—or my head! You can't anticipate what crazy thing he'll do next."

However, Patterson is plagued by nightmares which depict in terrifying detail the horrors Moondog Mayne is capable of inflicting. One such dream appears at least once a week.

"I'm alone in a desert," Patterson recalls, "a place I've never seen before. There's no shelter, no place to hide. Then a shadow falls across my face and I realize a helicopter is circling above me. Leaning out of the cockpit, grinning madly at me, is Mayne.

"I start to run, but the helicopter follows. Then I'm thrown to the ground by the force of an explosion behind me. I'm able to get up, only to see Mayne still hovering overhead. He's grinning even wider, and in his hand is a lighted stick of dynamite. I start to run again, then I'm thrown to the ground by another explosion. I look up again. Mayne is cackling now and lighting another stick of dynamite.

"I continue running. There's still another explosion. I'm very weak now, but I get up again. This pattern is repeated for what seems like hours. Finally, I can run no more. I lie on my back, arms outspread, and watch the last stick of dynamite come hurtling at my face. I hear the explosion.

"And then I wake up. My body is bathed in cold sweat. I only hope Mayne had the same kind of dreams.

"That's why I've got to get rid of Moondog Mayne. The fear of what this guy is capable of doing is haunting me. I can't stand the waiting to discover which one of us will we end up battered and broken. I've got to end it—one way or the other."

Mayne manages to hide whatever fear he has of Patterson beneath a cloak of raving hatred.

"I'll destroy the pig!" Mayne screamed at anyone who's in his vicinity. "I'll rip him apart in front of all his pig fans! They'll carry him right from the arena to the morgue! The next time I wrestle Patterson, it will be the last time!

"I'm going to donate various parts of Patterson's body to science. Anyone who's stupid enough to want to see Pat Patterson wrestle had better do it quickly. And those who want to see his last match had better go to the arena the next time I wrestle him. I've had enough of the clown. I'm going to finish off."

Patterson has heard all of this before from other wrestlers. Many of those who've made the threats went to great lengths to attempt to carry them out. None of them has affected Pat like Mayne.

"There's something about Mayne," he says, "which somehow spearates him from all other wrestlers, at least as far as I'm concerned. It's in his eyes, that mad glow which tells you he'll stop at nothing.

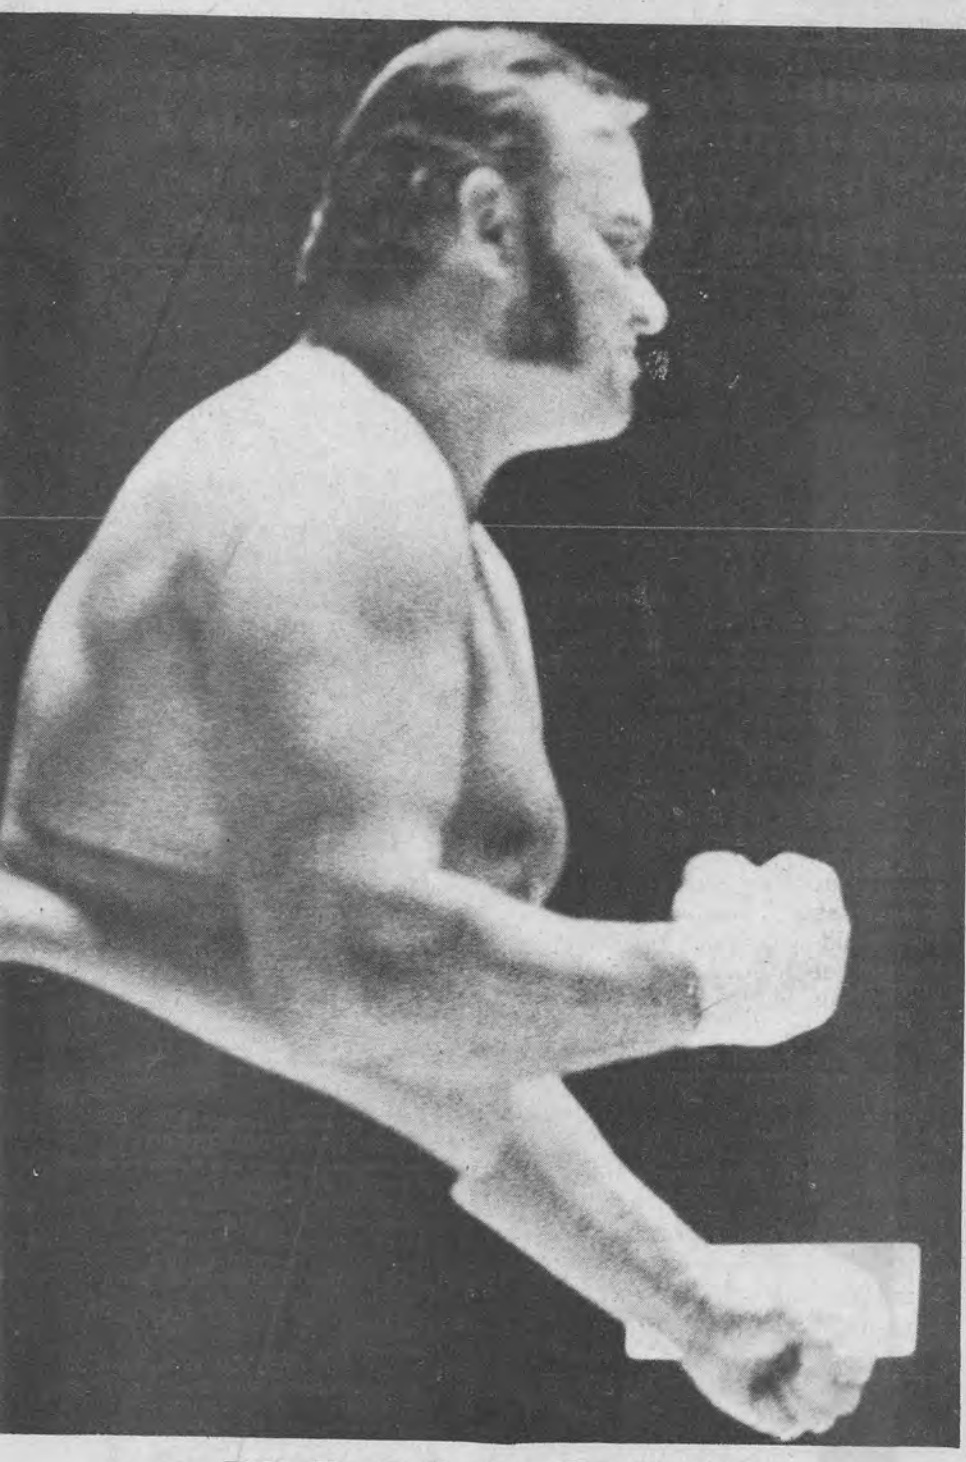
"Other wrestlers have a point at which self-preservation overcomes all other considerations. You can tell when you reach that point, and you wrestle accordingly. Mayne has no such point. He'll keep going until he drops dead. The man would rather win and die than lose and live! He make no sense.

"Crazy people are the most dangerous people of all. Moondog is the craziest guy I've ever come up against. That's why I've got to stop him. I know he's capable of crippling me."

Some day, late in the match, a horribly bleeding Moondog Mayne and Pat Patterson will be battling it out with anything either man can get his hands on. Then, one will gain the advantage and beat his foe into oblivion.

Before the pair can be separated, one will be lying on the canvas. The doctors, rushing to the fallen wrestler's side, will be unable to do anything.

Who will walk out of the arena a killer? And who will be carried out a corpse? □



"NEXT TIME I'LL HEART PUNCH THE DAMN REFEREE!"

Stan Stasiak still can't figure out how Johnny Valentine wound up with the decision in their recent match in Toronto. And Stan's determined never to let it happen again!

STAN STASIAK STOOD in the center of the ring. A look of absolute disbelief was pasted to his face. Outside the ring, walking slowly along the runway which leads back to the dressing room, a smiling Johnny Valentine watched Stasiak's dismay!

"Five more minutes," Stasiak pleaded with officials. "Just extend the match five more minutes. Please!"

But the curfew had already been extended and the two had battled for 37 minutes. If Stasiak couldn't do the job on Valentine in 37 minutes it's unlikely five more would've helped. Besides, Valentine was quite happy with the outcome and waved a derisive "bye-bye" at Stan as he disappeared down the stairs to the dressing room area.

The outcome which pleased Valentine and stunned Stasiak was the decision of referee Tiger Tasker, a decision which awarded the very close match to Johnny. The time limit, previously extended, had run out. Most people got up to leave expecting the usual draw. The decision sent Valentine's fans into gleeful howls, while the Stasiak supporters groaned.

"I don't understand it," Stasiak moaned, getting angrier and angrier. "You saw the match. It was close. If anything, I had the edge. How the hell could that dumb referee award the match to Valentine? He isn't supposed to make a decision anyway."

But that, according to Tasker, is untrue.

"Most curfew or time limit matches usually end in draws. In fact, in many places it's an unwritten rule that a curfew or time limit match will be declared a draw. But according to the rules in Canada, a referee does have the right to declare one man a winner. And because of Stasiak's tactics I awarded the match to Valentine. It was within my power to do so."

Since the awarding of a decision in wrestling or boxing is a matter of judgement, Tasker's decision couldn't be faulted, even if it appeared to many that Valentine had indeed gotten the worst of things.

Both men spent the major portion of the bout battering each other senseless—except for the first five minutes. Because for those five full minutes, Stasiak and Valentine stood in mid-ring, nose-to-nose, staring at each other without moving a muscle. But once they began—was it wild!

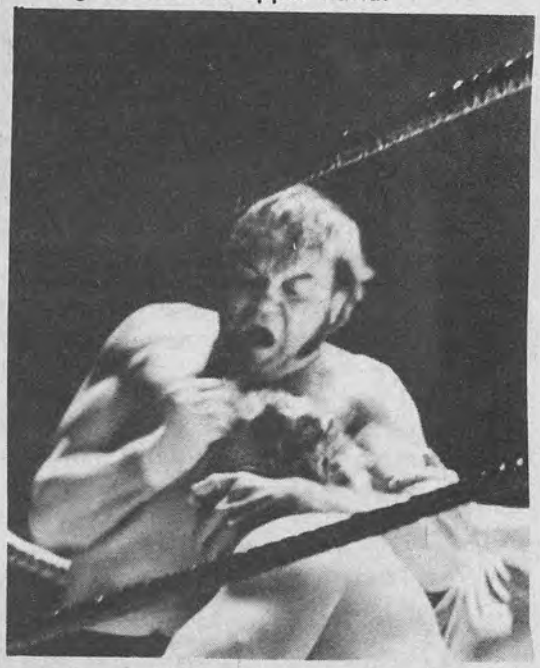
At no time was a single wrestling hold used. The entire match consisted of Valentine attempting to put Stasiak away with the atomic skullcrusher, and Stasiak trying to drop Valentine for keeps with his heart punch. Aside from that it was just slugging, slugging, and more slugging.

They battle in the middle of the ring, in the corners, draped over the ropes, and on the outside. They spent so much energy pounding on each other neither man could move with much fluidity when the bell rang. It was possibly the most grueling, tiring match each ever wrestled.

"Yeah, this was tough, very tough," said an exhausted Valentine in the dressing room. "He's big, strong, and he's got a lot of heart. I hit him with shots that would've put other men into dreamland. I don't particularly like Stasiak—but I respect him.

"I'm just glad this thing is settled once and for all. This was a rematch and I'm happy a decision was finally reached. I agree with the decision. I thought I had the upper hand."



When told that Stasiak said the referee shouldn't have reached any decision, Valentine exploded.

"Why that lying creep! We both agreed before the match that if it went the distance the referee would award a decision to one of us. He agreed to that! Now he's trying to back out, eh? Well the hell with him! I won. Let him swallow that!"

"That wasn't the agreement!" roared Stasiak. "The agreement was that it would go to a decision. That it wouldn't be stopped by curfew or time limit. Not that the referee would make a decision. I would've never agreed to that. Hell, that referee favored Valentine anyway.

"Remember that time when I had Valentine in the corner and was about to give him the heart punch? You saw the referee grab my arm

This match was so violent they didn't want anyone to know about it. But our intrepid photographer managed to get pictures of it with a hidden camera!

THERE ARE tag team bouts. There are cage matches. There are death matches. There are handicap bouts. There are strap matches.

Now, there is even a wrestling streetfight match!

The first of this type of bout was recently held at Hammond's Civic Center in Indiana. It was a tag team event pitting Moose Cholak and Pepper Gomez against The Legionnaires. There was only one problem in bringing you the story. Cameras weren't allowed in the arena for this special bout.

In a "streetfight" match each team enters the arena dressed in street-clothes. When the bell rings, ALL the wrestlers start the match. The first team to tear the other team's street-clothes completely off wins!

And that explains why no cameras are allowed!

Fortunately, photographer Bob Sabre was clever enough smuggle a small camera into the arena. Therefore, we are able to show you

Belle Starr holds Sue Green as Fabulous Moolah repeatedly hits Sue with hard forearm smashes.

A GAL RIOT THAT EXPL DRES

This match started in the dressing room—exploded in the ring—and wound up back in the dressing room again!

Photos By Gene Gordon

Moolah falls on top of the poor referee, and in a moment, Evelyn Stevens is on Moolah. Belle Starr then leaps upon Evelyn. Sue is about to join the pile, while on the bottom of this pile of brawling and scratching females is the referee, getting the worst of it! No one can say he isn't earning his paycheck!

SITTING IN THEIR dressing room, Fabulous Moolah and Belle Starr grew restless. Each woman was waiting for her match to begin. Moolah would be matched against Sue Green. Belle paced the floor as her clever mind reviewed strategy to use against her scheduled opponent, Evelyn Stevens.

"Shall we wish our opponents good luck?" Moolah asked with a sly smile.

Belle quickly agreed to take the short walk, knowing well that wishes of good fortune was not the reason they were going. Starr and Moolah excel at verbal taunts which infuriate their opponents.

The women know if they can get their foes outraged before the match begins, temper will cause the insulted women to get sloppy during the match. It's a cunning ploy which wins many matches.

Sue and Evelyn bristled when they saw the pair enter their dressing room. Veterans, that they are, they knew what was about to happen. And they were determined to stop it.

"Moolah," Sue snarled, "you open your mouth for an instant and I'll shut it for you! Now get out of here!"

"And follow her quickly, Belle," Evelyn added menacingly.

"Why honey," Moolah purred, "you've got us all wrong. We just came over to make sure you'd paid your health insurance premiums."

"And I," Belle said, "want to remember what Evelyn's face looks like—before I mess it up."

"Shut up! Sue snapped. "Get out!"

"That's not very hospitable, honey," Moolah drawled quietly, but her fists were clenched for action.

The tension in the room at this point could have been cut with a knife. The women were ready to spring when the promoter, who'd been told of Moolah's and Belle's decision to visit their opponents, barged into the dressing room.

"There's no reason" he said, "to battle this out behind closed doors. Why don't you save this for the arena? Instead of two single matches, we'll have one tag team bout!"

"Don't be stupid," Evelyn countered, "it takes a lot of preparation to be good in a tag team match. It's not something you just go out and do! Why don't you just close the door and let us girls settle this thing privately."

"Of course," the promoter said, "if you're afraid of humiliating yourself in front of the fans, I can understand that."

Evelyn glanced questioningly at Sue, who quickly nodded.

"You've got your brawl," Evelyn told the delighted promoter, then turned to Moolah and Belle to ask coldly, "Now, do you girls think you can get out of here?"

Belle and Moolah stormed out of the dressing room, their stunt having provoked unexpected results!

The crowd buzzed with excitement when it was announced all four girls would be wrestling in a tag team match instead of two separate bouts. When the two

When all the talking, bragging and confusion ended, Bruno Sammartino retained his W.W.W.F. belt because he made Spiros Arion give up!

THE LOBBY OF Madison Square Garden was like Times Square on New Year's Eve. People pushed and shoved trying to get tickets for the third match between Bruno Sammartino and Spiros Arion.

In a short time the "Sold Out" sign was posted. But 5,000 lucky fans were able to buy tickets for the closed circuit showing of the match in the Garden's Felt Forum.

It's little wonder there was such a tremendous turnout. Bruno against Arion was a feud that remained unsettled. It was now hotter than ever.

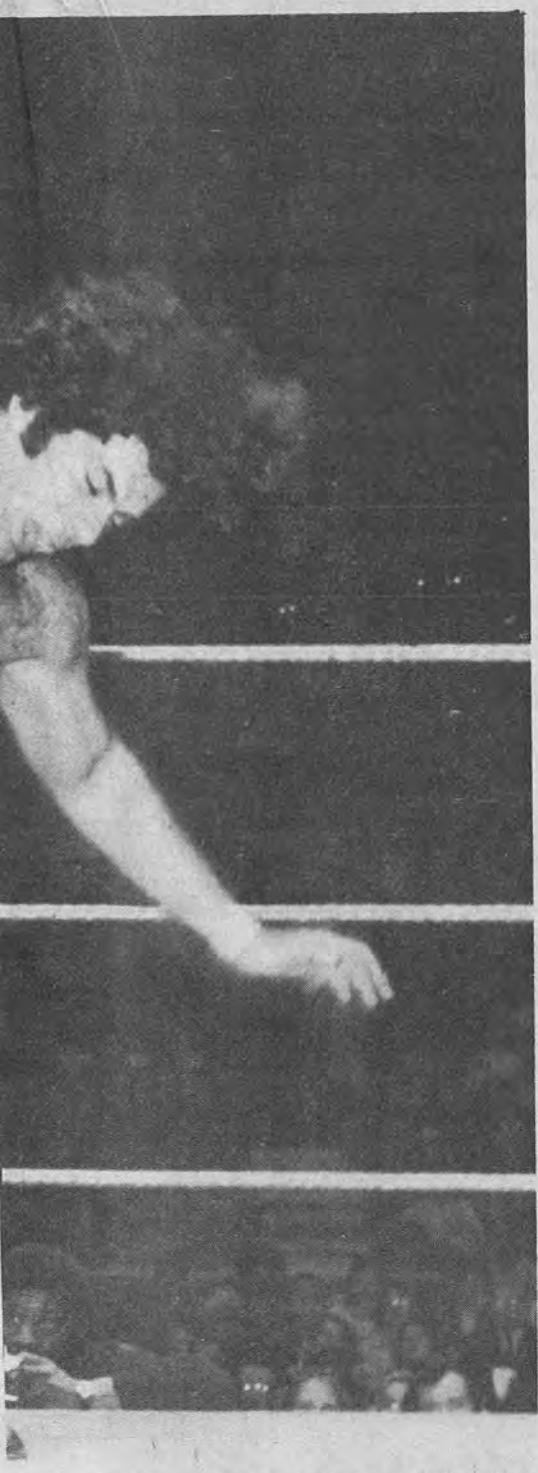
Their first encounter saw Bruno disqualified. The second was a highly controversial victory for Sammartino. So a third bout had to be wrestled for everyone's satisfaction.

Bruno and Arion didn't want any questions to remain after this match. They were both out to prove which was the better man. And to insure no doubts would exist, Bruno agreed to a Greek Death Match. In that type of match you can lose only by giving up. There are no regulations. Everything goes.

Bruno appeared a bit anxious before the bout. He had a lot on his mind.

"I've never wrestled this type of match in New York," Sammartino told our reporter. "It's not the kind of match I like. I like to be in a match where people can enjoy seeing skill and strength. But this match is proper for the occasion. This match will prove which one of us is superior."

Bruno paused to sign some autographs and then continued talking.



Arion bodyslams the W.W.W.F. champion to the canvas (above). As Sammartino crashed to the mat, Arion started kicking him in the groin. Somehow, Bruno managed to recover and continue the match!

"I want to show everybody that Arion was lying about the things he said concerning me. In this match he will finally have to be a man and say 'I wrestled Bruno in a death match, a free-for-all, and I lost.' I am confident I will beat him tonight."

As Bruno began signing more autographs, our man slipped away and went into Arion's dressing room.

"Come here you pencil neck!" Fred Blassie, Arion's manager, yelled. "Listen. Tonight Sammartino's uncle will not be the referee. My man, Spiros Arion, will destroy that spaghetti bender. Sammartino will go back to Italy in a pine box tonight. He ain't got a chance. No way!"

The bout was a titanic brawl. Wrestling holds were totally abandoned. Bruno showed Arion he could be as vicious as was necessary. This was something the Greek star was not ready for.

Spiros tried to slow Bruno by kicking him in the groin. But the champion recovered quickly and gave Arion a vicious beating.

Several times it looked like Arion would quit. But Spiros did not. Finally, Bruno went in for the kill. He locked Arion in a half boston crab. Spiros screamed in pain. He tried to hold on. The sweat dripped down his body. He was about to black out. Finally, he submitted.

The fans went wild with joy. They cheered seeing Arion lying in pain on the canvas.

After the decision was announced, Spiros unable to get up, tried to trip Bruno as he was leaving the ring. What a mistake that was! Bruno lashed out at Arion, kicking him almost unconscious. Spiros, on his knees, looked up at Bruno.

"You failed!" Sammartino exclaimed. "You're a beaten man! I don't want to hear your lies anymore! You know who the better man is now!"

Arion was offered assistance out of the ring by referee Dick Kroll.

"Get away, Sammartino's uncle!" he yelled as he pushed Kroll. A special police officer did help Arion back to the dressing room.

"You know," said Kroll, "that Arion's got to learn every referee isn't related to Bruno!"

Later, we asked Kroll his opinion of the match, since he had the best view.

"I was surprised Arion lasted that long," he said. "I've refereed a number of Bruno's death matches. I've come to the conclusion its a mistake for Sammartino's opponents to challenge him to this type of match.

"This was one of the most vicious matches I've seen. It was obvious from the opening bell that Sammartino had much anger to take out on Arion."

Bruno was satisfied with the bout's outcome. Although he probably would have been more content if Arion would have said outright, "Bruno, you are the better man." But, as Bruno contends, "As long as Arion has a guy like Blassie around him, that day will never come!" □

THE FANS EXCHANGED puzzled glances when Ray Stevens strutted down the arena aisle with his partner, for the bout manager Bobby Heenan. The crowd's consternation was understandable. Ray's constant partner, Nick Bockwinkle, was nowhere in sight.

Nobody knew what had happened to Bockwinkle, nor was there any announcement explaining his absence. The pair's opponents, Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell, were as puzzled as everyone else. Though he wasn't even in the arena, Nick Bockwinkle became the man of the hour.

Once the match began, however, Nick was quickly forgotten. Heenan and Stevens didn't have the fluid, instinctive movements of Ray and Nick, but they made up for this lack with some of the most recklessly cruel tactics ever seen. If Gagne and Brunzell had hoped the strange disapperance of Bockwinkle would make it any easier for them, they quickly discovered their mistake.

IS THERE TROUBLE BOCKWINKLE

Both Bobby Heenan and Ray Stevens swear there's no mystery behind the failure of Nick Bockwinkle to appear with Stevens in a recent tag team event. But not everybody's buying Heenan's explanation

Right: Straining to the limits of his strength, Jim grabs Bobby and tries to flip him across the canvas. Heenan couldn't stop the rampaging Greg Gagne and Jim Brunzell.

Yet this young team proved its courage time and time again. They also proved their composure when Heenan, in a desperate fit of anger, tried to pull off Brunzell's trunks! Jim, however, wrestled as if this embarrassing incident meant nothing to him.

The young pair worked expertly on Stevens' arm and Heenan's entire body. The wily veterans, meanwhile used every trick in the book, though they managed to take only one fall from the young and exciting team. Heenan and Stevens walked dejectedly back to the dressing room while Brunzell and Gagne's arms were raised in victory.

Once this great battle was over, the question again rose as to Bockwinkle's whereabouts. Could this mean the dissolution of one of wrestling's most notorious and best tag teams?

"I know thousands of guys who'd wish Nick and I were no longer together," Ray said in his dressing room, "but it's not true. We're a close as we ever were!

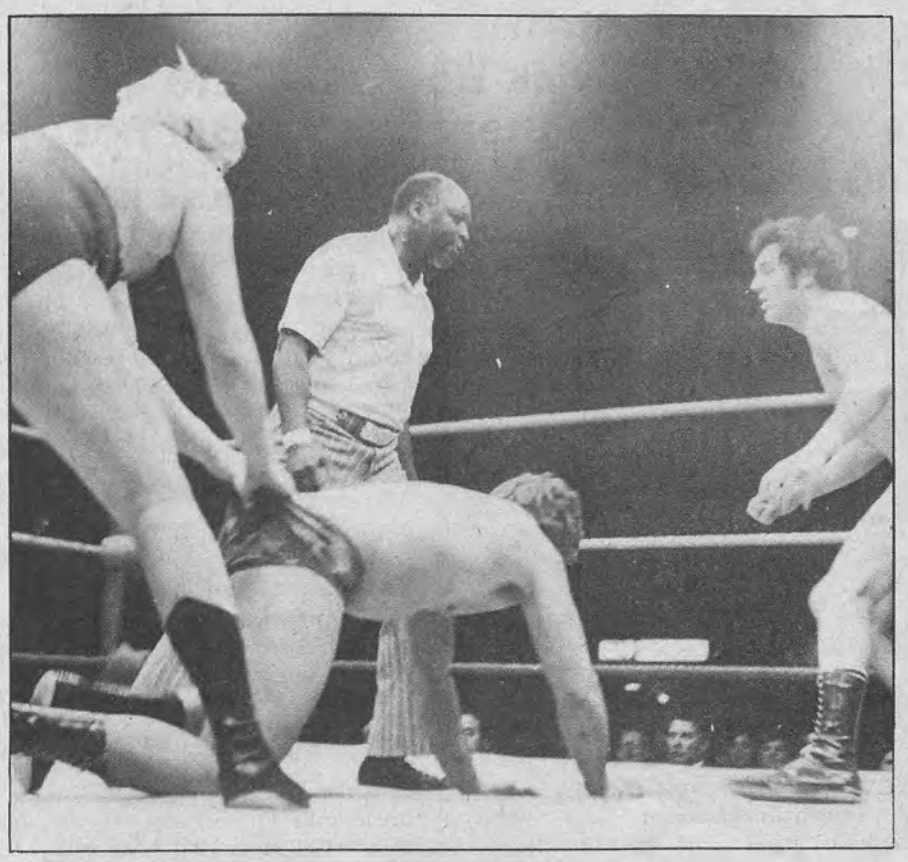
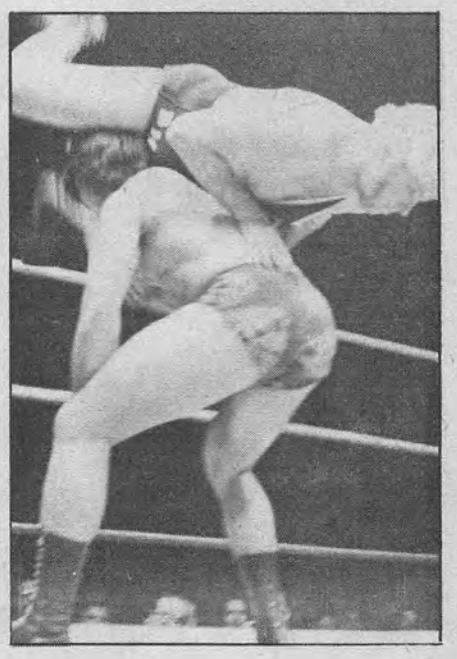
BREWING BETWEEN & STEVENS?



Left: Heenan grabs onto Jim's trunks as Greg tries to come to his partner's aid. Heenan is just as unscrupulous as Nick Bockwinkle! Below: Heenan is unable to prevent being flipped by Brunzell late in the battle.



Throughout the match, Brunzell worked on Stevens' left arm, part of his team's overall strategy. When Jim had the chance, he got Ray in an excruciating armbar (above) or simply put all his weight on the arm (below). Afterwards, Stevens could barely move the arm!

"We've got years invested in this tag team. We work better together than any other men in wrestling history. Neither Nick nor I are about to throw away all that time and effort. We'd be silly to break up the best tag team wrestling has ever known."

"Bockwinkle and Stevens," Heenan interrupted, "will go on being a tag team when the rest of us are long gone. They'll never end their lucrative association. The two of them are legends in their own time. Legends do not disintegrate over minor differences!"

Did that means there were "minor differences" existing between Bockwinkle and Stevens?

"Don't twist my words!" Heenan cautioned angrily. "There exists no rift, of even the smallest size, between Ray Stevens and Nick Bockwinkle. They're closer now than they ever were! And they continue to improve as a team! Don't ever suggest Stevens and Bockwinkle are ready to end their partnership!"

Naturally, someone then asked Heenan for possibly the eighth time that night, where was Nick Bockwinkle?

"Bockwinkle is where he wants to be," Bobby replied, which was as close as he'd come to a straight answer. "You've got no right to know. He's on his own business."

Stevens was equally closed-mouth about the situation. However, when answers aren't forthcoming, speculation is the only result.

In the dressing room, Gagne and Brunzell discussed the odd appearance of Heenan in Bockwinkle's place.

"It would be nice to think," Greg said with a smile, "that Bockwinkle was afraid to meet us. However, that's a slim possibility. Of all the bad things one can say about Bockwinkle, coward is one thing he's not!"

Perhaps something happened," Jim countered, "something we don't even know about, something so terrible it turned Bockwinkle into a coward. It doesn't even have to be related to wrestling. It's been known to happen before."

"I guess we'll have to wait to see," Greg reflected, "though I can't imagine anything turning Bockwinkle into a coward. That's too easy an answer. There must be a logical explanation which we just don't know about."

"Then why won't they say what it it?" Brunzell asked.

"I don't know," Greg admitted, "I just don't know."

When Bockwinkle was contacted at his home the following day, he refused to make any statement. He's determined to keep the reason for his failure to appear a secret.

Chances are the reason Bockwinkle didn't appear will never be made public. Though one should watch carefully what happens the next time Bockwinkle and Stevens are scheduled to wrestle Gagne and Brunzell! □

Victor Rivera jumped at the chance to get Greg Valentine in a "loser-leave-town" cage match. And he had it won, too. But then his temper got the better of him

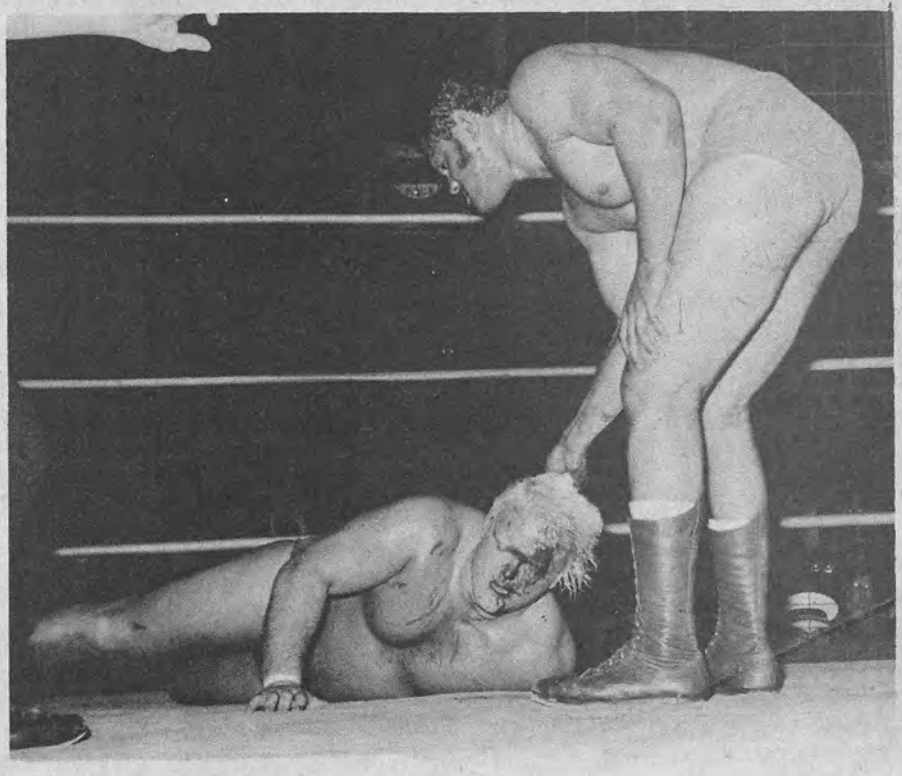
HOW RIVERA'S OWN TEMPER GOT HIM RUN OUT OF TOWN

Victor Rivera is determined to end the reign of terror being inflicted by Sir Oliver and his army of ruthless rulebreakers.

In a wild and brutal cage match against Greg Valentine, Victor goes on the rampage and has his foe bleeding from numerous cuts!



ONE WOULD NEVER guess Victor Rivera had been given the victory as he angrily paced up and down his dressing room after the bout against Greg Valentine. The mat star was fuming.

"I've got to get them out of the area!" Victor declared, meaning Valentine and his manager, Sir Oliver Humperdink. "Did you see Humperdink interfere in the match? I don't care if Valentine got disqualified because of it! Those two wanted to kill me! They're maniacs! And they must be stopped!

"I've got to do it myself," Victor concluded quietly, "because I've got to make sure it's done. It's either them or me. They leave me no other choice."

The next day Victor announced his challenge to Valentine. The Los Angeles promoters were quick to meet his demands. All that remained was Valentine's acceptance of the conditions.

Valentine seemed eager to meet Rivera. When he announced his agreement to the match, he seemed to glow with anticipation.

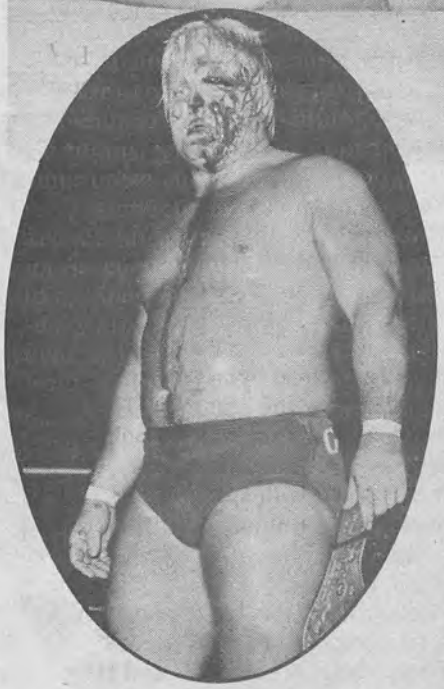
"I can't wait," he declared, "to meet Rivera in a loser-leave-town cage match. Sir Oliver won't be near the arena during the match. This is between me and that slob. I don't need anyone else around.

"Sir Oliver will spend more than enough time training me for the bout. Hs genius will make it unnecessary for him to be anywhere near me. Our combined knowledge will beat Rivera before I even get into the arena!"

Those close to Valentine and Humperdink were astonished at how intensely the two prepared for the match. They were inseparable as they discussed maneuvers and worked over tactics in the gym. Humperdink drove Valentine mercilessly and Greg responded with determination.

"We plan to control west coast wrestling," Sir Oliver admitted, "and Rivera is a stumbling block in the constuction of our empire. Actually, Rivera has played right into our hands by asking for a loser-leave-town match.

"This is the chance we've been waiting for. We're not about to let it go by.



Above: A beaten man in every way but in the record books, a bloody Valentine lies exhausted upon the canvas. Left: Valentine manages to get to his feet and prepares to leave the arena. Below: Early in the proceedings, the referee has to warn Valentine not to choke his opponent. At this time, Victor is almost unconscious from the lack of oxygen. This is the last time Valentine is in control.

Victor Rivera will be forced to leave the area after this match.

"Not only will we get rid of him," Sir Oliver concluded, "we'll be showing the rest of the wrestlers who's in charge. This match will be the formal announcements of my stable's superiority over everyone!"

Rivera also trained hard and long for this match. He wanted to break the back of Humperdink's organization by humiliating its most successful member, Valentine. Few men have ever dedicated themselves so intently

CHIEF JAY STRONGBOW MASSACRED IN 34 SECONDS!

It happened so quickly neither Chief Jay Strongbow nor thousands of fans realized it was over before it ever began!

CHIEF JAY STRONGBOW heard the last of the referee's instructions and turned around to walk back to his corner to remove his ceremonial Indian regalia.

It's the last thing he remembered.

"After that everything is a blank," Strongbow recalls. "I vaguely remember being helped back to the dressing room. I think Bruno helped me but I wasn't sure. Later I was told he did help me. But until I saw the tape—everything was blank."

What Strongbow didn't remember until he saw the videotape replay the following day, was Waldo Von Erich

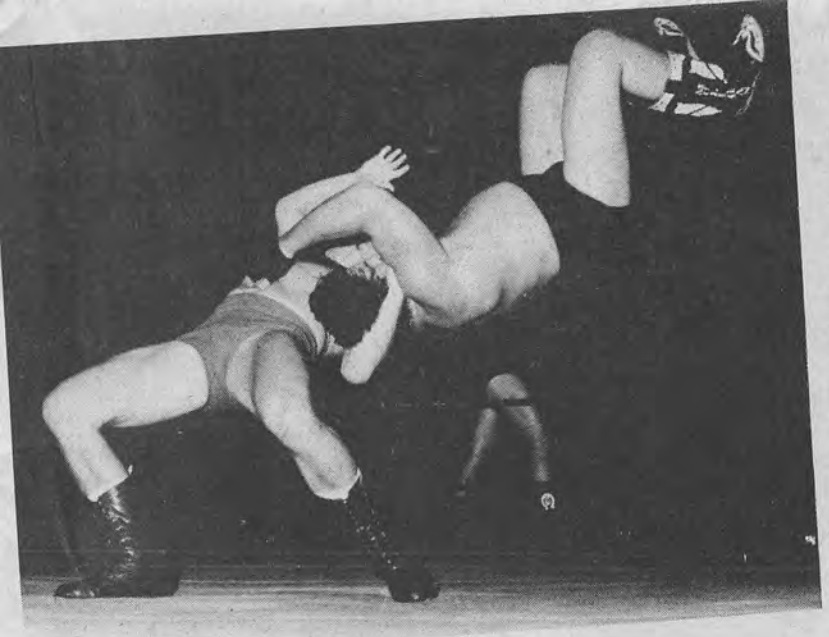
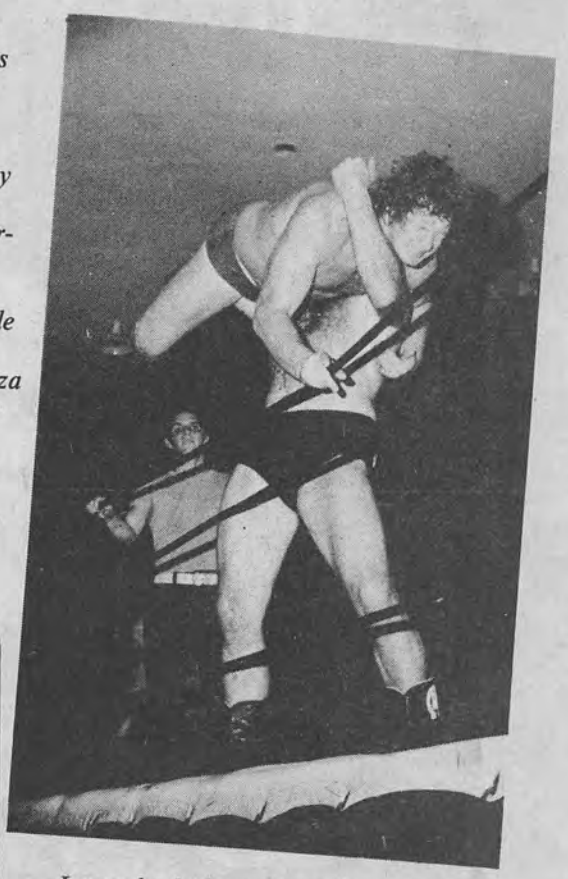
The notorious Waldo Von Erich (right) is the man who brought Chief Jay Strongbow crumpling to the hard floor (below) after a brutal sneak attack before the match had even begun. Jay did not know what hit him!



Left: Dory Jr. suplexes Blackjack Mulligan during a match Dory called "the most important tag team bout of my whole career." Right: Lanza hurls Terry over the ropes and onto the hard floor!



Lanza bodyslams Dory Jr. to the canvas as hard as is humanly possible. If Dory hadn't taken the fall well, chances are he'd have suffered a broken back!

THE GREATEST FIGHT FOR TEXAS SINCE THE ALAMO!

THERE WAS MUCH more at stake than personal honor or a record book statistic the night Terry Funk and Dory Funk Jr. wrestled the Blackjacks. To the winner would go the championship of Texas.

Neither team had to be told what the prize was. Each of the four could feel the tension twisting every fiber in his body for weeks before the match.

Until the Blackjacks challenged their superiority, Terry and Dory Jr. were acknowledged as the premier tag team in Texas, perhaps the greatest in the state's history. The Funks enjoyed this reputation and were careful to protect it.

Then, like a swarm of ravaging locusts, the Blackjacks descended upon the Texas tag team scene and destroyed everything in their path. They were ruthless, merciless, and capable of the most reprehensible tactics. Some of their opponents will never wrestle again.

When the two best tag teams in Texas battle for the championship of the state you can expect all hell to break loose. And it did!

Blackjack Mulligan and Blackjack Lanza started bragging about their accomplishments all over the state. They also claimed the first time they met the Funks would be the last time the Funks ever wrestled!

"Texas fans!" Mulligan shouted, "have for two long been admiring the second-rate, the rotten, and the simple! Terry and Dory Jr. are a bad joke that long ago ceased to be funny! All they are now is a pain in the butt! The Blackjacks are going to remove that pain!"

"We're are number one in Texas!" Lanza added. "The ridiculous reign of the Funk is over. This is the era of the Blackjacks!" Lanza became subdued when he added, "That's if the Funks have the guts to wrestle us!"

At this, Mulligan started ranting, "They know better than to ever wrestle us! Those cowards have enough sense to realize how lousy they are and how much better we are! They wouldn't wrestle us for all the money in the world. They have too much to lose!"

It didn't take long for word to trickle back to Terry about the Blackjack's challenge and insults. He didn't waste an instant in getting the promoter on the phone and demanding a match be scheduled against them.

"We'll wrestle them tomorrow!" Terry fumed. "We'll wrestle them tonight. Hell, send the rats over and I'll wrestle them now! Better yet, I'll go to them!"

The promoter managed to calm Terry down enough so that he wouldn't attack the Blackjacks without earning some money at the same time. Dory Jr., when he heard of the match, grew serious and immediately started mapping out strategy.

The brothers withdrew to their training quarters and held round-the-clock physical and mental exercises. This match would put their reputations and pride on the line. If they lost, they'd be ashamed to show their faces in a Texas arena.

"Our fans," Dory Jr. explained, "expect a certain level of excellence. They deserve no less. If we lose, we will have betrayed their trust in our abilities. We wouldn't have that happen for the world.

"Not only do we have to win convincingly, we have to use scientific methods to do it. We love the sport too much to see it turned into a cheap brawl."

However, when asked if he would respond with brutality if the Blackjacks introduced those tactics, Dory Jr. declared, "If the match becomes, because of the Blackjacks, simply survival of the fittest, Terry and I will prove we're the fittest. I hope it doesn't come to that, although against the Blackjacks I expect it will. I'd be surprised if it doesn't."

The brothers were surprised when they wrestled the Blackjacks, although far from pleasantly.

MELODIE DEE

WHY THE INSULTS

Why is everyone running down Jack Brisco?

He's been badmouthed and insulted. He's no different from any other champion who's held the belt. For example, in Houston, the fans have continually ignored illegal punches and holds used against him in several matches. When he's defended himself in similar ways, people have attacked him repeatedly.

He is a great champion. Long live Brisco as champion!

JANET DEAN
Galveston, Tex.

Many fans have been complaining about the flood of insults that are being directed toward the N.W.A. champion Jack Brisco.

ALONE, IN GOOD COMPANY

In your recent article, "Johnny Valentine, One Man Against the World" (INSIDE WRESTLING/ April 1975), Bob Ellis and Paul Jones both stated Johnny couldn't be trusted as a tag team partner.

As far as I'm concerned, Jones and Ellis are talking before they think. The only reason Johnny doesn't team with many wrestlers is because he doesn't need anyone to prove how tough he is!

Mr. Valentine, take a bow.

SEAN RITTER
Los Altos, Cal.

Joe Leduc is urged by fans to tolerate the agony inflicted on a man who opposes Gary Hart's army rather than joining that crew.. Playboy Gary Hart says he owns Leduc's contract, but Joe counters by saying, "It's a lie, like everything else Hart ever claims!"

MORE!

Thank you for the great stories on Jim Garvin and Jerry Lawler in INSIDE WRESTLING and THE WRESTLING.

I love those two great mat stars and hope there'll be lots more of them in your magazine.

SANDRA PATTERSON
Atlanta, Ga.

RIGHT ON!

When you people say, "There's Nothing Tame About San Francisco Wrestling" (INSIDE WRESTLING/ June 1975), you're not kidding. We have the greatest wrestling in the world, as Larry Barnhizer's fantastic pictures show perfectly.

If it were only for Moondog Mayne and Pat Patterson's wild confrontations, this would be the best area I've in the world. But there's so much more and so much great excitement.

Promoter Roy Shire does fantastic work. We thank him all the time!

CARL VONISKI
San Francisco, Cal.

SHOULDN'T JOIN

I sincerely hope Joe LeDuc manages to stay out of Playboy Gary Hart's army ("Is Joe LeDuc Planning To Join Playboy Gary Hart's Army?" [INSIDE WRESTLING/June 1975]). I think it would be a great tragedy for wrestling if it happened.

We need all the wrestlers we can to drive Gary Hart out of the profession. If a man with Joe's integrity decided to become one of Hart's cronies, it'll be a sad day for wrestling indeed.

I hope Joe sticks to his determination to be against everything Hart stands for!

ever since the crash I get the damndest feeling at that time in the morning that something is gonna happen. I still wake up with nightmares. It's a real un-Godly feeling.

My main problem is that I can't walk. Being in that immobile state I just can't do things I have to—even see a doctor. You know what it's like to get doctors to make housecalls?

I have rented a whirpool and am using it on the foot. I'm just waiting and praying that I will be well again. If I think even for a moment that I might not be able to wrestle again it'll get worse for me mentally. One doctor did tell me I'll never wrestle again. But I won't believe it. I believe I will get well and be as healthy as before. In a situation like this a guy could actually go nuts. I'm just concentrating on keeping a real positive attitude. I'm gonna fight!

I do want to thank all the wonderful fans who've sent cards, flowers and letters. They helped me immensely. I will never be able to thank them enough. God bless them. Bless every one of em! □ and stop it. He claimed Valentine was out of the ropes. What I should have done was turn around the heart punch the damn referee!"

Under Toronto rules, that would've been grounds for immediate disqualification, but Stasiak figures he wouldn't have lost anything by it.

"What difference does if make if you lose by disqualification or by a phony decision?"

It was suggested that they meet again, but both grapplers wanted no part of that.

"It would serve no purpose," stated Valentine. "Even though we're fairly evenly matched, I proved I could beat him. If I gave him a rematch every time I defeat him this thing wil go on forever."

"Why should I wrestle him again?" demanded Stasiak. "So I can get robbed by a crooked referee? Who needs it? Why spend a half hour with Valentine when I can get what I want in one minute with Tasker? He's the bum I want—not Valentine!"

Considering how angry Stasiak is, it would be a good idea for Tiger Tasker to stay out of his way. Because the way Stan feels, he may deliver a heart punch first and ask questions later! □

GREATEST FIGHT

Above: Lanza pulls Dory Jr. off his partner, Mulligan, when it looked like Funk would pin Blackjack and win the battle. Before the referee could take action, Mulligan was freed. Right: Lanza hopes to maul Dory Jr. with a flying kneedrop. At the last second, Dory rolled out of harms's way.

On the night of the battle, not another fan could have possibly squeezed into the arena. The place had been sold out for weeks. No fan in the state wanted to miss this titanic confrontation.

Those unable to purchase tickets offered up to $50 for a pair of the incredibly valuable pieces of cardboard. This match promised to be one which would be remembered and discussed by fans for years to come.

The bell's clanging had not ceased to echo when Terry and Lanza crashed together in crazed fury. The field of battle became a blur of body flips, suplex slams, punches, kicks, and body slams. When both men tagged their partners, they were battered and exhausted.

Dory Jr. and Mulligan kept up the furious pace. The raging action seemed destined to destroy either one or both of the grapplers. The ropes soon failed to contain the battle, and the four wrestlers found themselves trading punches on the concrete floor and rolling over onto the ringside seats.

The referee started shouting for the brawling quartet to return to the canvas. Terry and Dory attempted to struggle back, but they were constantly stopped by the Blackjacks. At his point the Funks started battling back. The referee's instructions wer ignored.

The official watched this mad battle and realized it would have to be stopped. Taking into account the Funks' brief attempt to follow his orders, he decided to reward them.

"The Blackjacks are disqualified!" he announced. "The Funks are the winners!"

When the Blackjacks realized what had happened, they leaped into the ring and threatened the referee. Angrily, the official started to take off his shirt, daring the wrestlers to come after him. However, looking at his determined face and remembering the stiff fine which accompanies an attack on a referee, the Blackjacks, satisfied their anger by simply shouting insults. When they saw their words were failing to infuriate the man, Mulligan and Lanza stomped angrily back to their dressing room.

Neither team seemed happy with the results of the match. No clear victory had been won, though all four men proved their ruggedness, power, and courage. The loyalty of the Texas fans still remains with the Funks, though the brothers were far from satisfied.

"We've earned their loyalty," Dory Jr. explained, "but we must continue to earn their respect. Until we're satisfied we've done that, we'll not rest easy. The Blackjacks haven't wrestled Terry Funk and Dory Funk Jr. for the last time!" □

George "Crybaby" Cannon is happy these days because he's convinced his wrestler, the outrageous Eric the Red, will soon win a title and garner for himself and George a large fortune in winnings.

can't do this to me!"

The immortal Antonino Rocca is thinking about coming out of retirement "for a match against my old enemy, Fred Blassie," Rocca said. "I can't stand the way that man helps his men out when they're in trouble. I want to put an end to his evil ways."

"Listen here!" an enraged Blassie yelled. "Rocca is no competition for the great Freddie Blassie. The man can't even see right. If he sees me interfering in matches that geek must have messed up vision. I'll destroy him any time he so desires!"

Harley Race, long feuding with Dory Funk Jr., is now engaged in a series of battles against Terry Funk.

"I just want everyone in that family to know who the boss is," Race said. "I can beat both Funks with ease!"

Sonny King and Charlie Cook are rapidly becoming a popular team.

"Charlie and I click real well together," King said. "I have been looking for a steady partner for a while and Cook fits the bill. I also like teaming with Paul Jones. He's another great partner along with my ol' buddy back east, Jay Strongbow."

The Masked Avenger and Super Destroyer feud looks like it has no end in sight. Still, neither has lost his mask yet . . . The Anderson Brothers Gene and Ole, terrorizing mid-atlantic areas . . . Bobby Heenan teaming with Baron Von Raschke on occasion. "I still wrestle often," Bobby said. "And I'm still the best!"

Angelo and Lanny Poffo, a father and son duo, headed for St. Louis. "They've got great tag team competition there," Angelo said, "and that's what we're looking for" . . . Rocky Johnson had a pier six brawl against Bill Miller. "Miller was one of my toughest opponents." Rocky admits . . . Waldo Von Erich claims, "I will win Sammartino's title and take it back to Germany!"

By the way, Bobby Heenan claims the American Wrestling Association is refusing to give his protege, Boris Breshnikov, a shot at Verne Gagne's title.

"I don't understand why," Heenan said. "Boris is one of the best of the A.W.A. lot. It's beyond me why he hasn't been able to corner Gagne. All I can figure out is Gagne is scared and the A.W.A. is protecting him."

"I don't make matches," Gagne said when questioned about the situation. "If he's worthy of a shot at the title I'm sure the A.W.A. will recognize him. I duck no one."

And that's what's happening, baby! □

sneaking up behind him and attacking him before the bell sounded.

Von Erich pounded Strongbow on the back of the head, sent a vicious kick to his groin, pulled him to his feet by his headdress, and hurled him over the top rope onto the concrete floor. The Chief hit the floor head first!

Although it was obvious to everyone that Strongbow was out cold, the referee counted to 10 to give him the opportunity to climb back into the ring. When he failed, the match was awarded to Von Erich in the startling time of 34 seconds flat!

"Hah!" roared Von Erich's manager, Fred Blassie. "Thirty four seconds! And 10 seconds was the count so it took only 24 seconds for my champion to dispose of that pathetic, pencil—neck redskin! It was beautiful! The only thing I'm sorry about is that his stupid Indian head didn't split into a hundred pieces when he hit the ground! Maybe next time—if there is a next time—we'll get the opportunity to scrape what little brains he may have off the floor!"

Strongbow, although angered at the sneak attack, blames nobody but himself for what happened.

"I should know better by now than to ever turn my back on any man managed by Freddie Blassie. Maybe I figured he wouldn't pull a stunt like that in front of more than 20,000 people. Maybe I just wasn't thinking. But I made a mistake and I paid for it. I guarantee I won't ever let that happen to me again."

Strongbow also admitted it was the worst, defeat, if you care to call it that, he ever suffered. "I never got a chance to do anything," the Chief noted. "It was exactly what it appeared—a total rout. However, when you're sneak attacked from behind before the bell has sounded—I don't consider it a defeat. There was never a match. It was more like a mugging than a defeat. A defeat implies that a match took place and one man whipped another. That's not what happened here."

Most everyone agreed. Bruno Sammartino, who helped Strongbow back to the dressing room, summed it up best.

"It was a cowardly act by a cowardly man, no doubt planned by his cowardly manager Mr. Blassie. Real men don't have to do such things." □

Rock tortures Chief Thunder Cloud during their Indian strap match (above). Like Rock's other opponents, Thunder Cloud learns that Riddle is the most recklessly ruthless of professional grapplers.

In a rare reflective moment, Riddle ponders the future while sitting on his new sports car.

it worth my while to leave wrestling. Make sure you put in this article that the producers must come up with a fortune before my magnificent body and charismatic personality becomes part of movieland for long.

"Of course," he added with a sly grin, "for a million bucks a film, I might be tempted to leave wrestling for five months a year."

This kind of outlandish statement is in the Riddle tradition. No matter what the subject, and it's rarely upon anything other than Rock, one can count on the grappler to be described—by himself—as the greatest since recorded time. If it has been done, Riddle can do it best. If it hasn't been done, he'll soon do it—magnificently.

"Even in high school," the blond wrestler recalls, "I knew I was destined for greatness. I was the greatest amateur wrestler in history! I would've been an immortal in the sport if it wasn't for a few jealous clowns, like my wrestling coach. I would invent all these new holds, my mind being as great as my body, but he'd keep telling me not to use them. He said they were illegal, or he used some other silly excuse. Hell, I mastered all the supposedly legal holds in an afternoon. It's only natural I'd want to expand my horizons."

Rock complains that this "jealousy" has plagued his entire career.

"From the moment I entered the professional ranks," Riddle claims, "referees have tried to shackle my brilliance. Just because they've never seen some of my maneuvers, they assume they're illegal. I'm handcuffed in half my bouts!

"And when it comes to getting a title match, it's impossible for me. I spent too long trying to force Jack Brisco into a title match. That slimy coward spent half his time just trying to avoid me. Thousand of women wrote to him daily, begging for a title shot for their hero, me. I guess that only made it worse. The louse was jealous of the girls' adoration of me.

"Now, I've given up on ever getting a chance to get near Brisco. I don't care about that little flunky any longer. I've decided to take Verne Gagne's belt. Though it hasn't been easier getting anywhere near that coward, either.

"First, the liar promises me a title shot if I beat his punk kid, Greg. Well, I beat the stuffings out of him. Then I go to his old man for my title shot. He says I never beat his stupid brat!

"I must have wrestled Greg nine times," Rock concludes, "and his father still says I've never beaten him.

Right: When he was a manager, Rock often illegally aided his wrestlers by interfering in the matches. Below: Riddle is this badly mangled early in the bout! He claims his opponent later had to go to the hospital!

I'm the only guy in wrestling who deserves to be champion. The others are too scared to be real champs!

Naturally, one isn't supposed to take everything Riddle says as the truth. Brisco heatedly denies the accusations, while the Gagnes just smile and shake their heads. Besides, Riddle hasn't been depriving himself of any creature comforts because he fails to hold a world championship.

There are sultans who'd envy Riddle's lifestyle. As Riddle guides people through his sumptuous Pensacola Beach, Florida, townhouse, he makes sure they're aware of how these riches came to pass.

"I'm not ony the world's most magnificent athlete," says the man who refers to himself as 'Mr. Wonderful' and 'The Heavenly Body,' "I'm also a brilliant wrestling manager. Of course you're familiar with my tag team champions over the years.

"Who could forget the astonishing combination of Don and Al Greene, former Southern tag team champions? Or the Great Fugi and Taro Murasaki, former Tennessee tag team winners? Also, my men, the Masked Spoilers, got the title. And I'll always remember that wonderful evening when Kubla Khan and Gunga Dhin became the United States tag team champions. Those were good years.

"But that's all behind me now. There's no time left for managing wrestlers inferior to myself. I'm only interested in Rock Riddle from now on."

Riddle is lucky to have found a concern which is so enjoyable to him. He indulges himself shamelessly, squandering money with a joyousness that's almost contagious. After meeting Riddle, one has to use self-restraint not to hock everything and try to live a week in the Riddle style.

It's hard not to be overwhelmed by Rock's new "toy," a brilliant fire-red metal-flake sports car, one of only 250 in existence. It's the kind of automobile one expects to find only in a science fiction movie or a romance involving the fabulously wealthy. Riddle can almost take such prizes in stride.

Even the mat star's grappling outfits are exotically expensive.

"My duds," he says with a wave of his hand, "cost around $6,000. Many people think I never wear the same outfit twice. I won't deny it.

"I've got eight velvet robes, probably worth in the neighborhood of $3,600. I'm getting tired of them, though. I'm ordering a chinchilla job. That'll be nice."

He also asks that his female fans stop sending nude photos, unless their body is the female equivalent of his male magnificence. And those who wish to send him gold should make sure that their gifts weigh over one ounce. Anything less is too little to handle.

As we left, Rock "Mr. Wonderful" Riddle stood admiring himself in gold gilt-edged full-length mirror. And he couldn't have been happier. □

Losing Your Hair
Hair Thinning
Do You Have Dandruff
Itchy Scalp?

THE COMATE HAIR AND SCALP TREATMENT MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SAVING YOUR HAIR AND LOSING THE REST OF IT.

Baldness is simply a matter of subtraction. When the number of new hairs fail to equal the number of falling hair, you end up minus your head of hair (bald). Why not avoid baldness by preventing unnecessary loss of hair? Why not eliminate needless causes of hair loss and give Nature a chance to grow more hair for you? Many of the country's dermatologists and other foremost hair and scalp specialists believe that seborrhea, a common scalp disorder, causes hair loss. What is seborrhea? It is a bacterial infection of the scalp that can eventually cause permanent damage to the hair follicles. Its visible evidence is "thinning" hair. Its end result is baldness. Its symptoms are dry, itchy scalp, dandruff, oily hair, head scales, and progressive hair loss.

So, if you are beginning to notice that your forehead is getting larger, beginning to notice that there is too much hair on your comb, beginning to be worried about the dryness of your hair, the itchyness of your scalp, the ugly dandruff — these are Nature's Red Flags warning you of impending baldness. Even if you have been losing your hair for some time, don't let seborrhea rob you of the rest of your hair.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of causes of baldness and excessive hair loss. In such cases neither the Comate treatment nor any other treatment is effective.

Note To Doctors
Doctors, clinics and hospitals interested in scalp disorders can obtain professional samples and literature on written request.

HOW COMATE WORKS ON YOUR SCALP

The development of an amazing hair and scalp medicine called Comate is specifically designed to control seborrhea and stop the hair loss it causes. It offers the opportunity to thousands of men and women losing their hair to bacterial infection to reverse the battle they are now losing on their scalps. By stopping this obstacle to normal hair growth, new hairs can grow as Nature intended.

This is how Comate works: (1) It combines in a single scalp treatment the essential corrective factors for normal hair growth. By its rubifacient action it stimulates blood circulation to the scalp, thereby supplying more nutrition to still-alive hair follicles. (2) As a highly effective antiseptic, Comate kills on contact the seborrhea-causing scalp bacteria believed to be a cause of baldness. (3) By its keratolitic action it dissolves ugly dandruff. By tending to normalize the lubrication of the hair shaft it corrects excessively dry and oily hair. It eliminates head scales & scalp itch.

In short, Comate offers you in a single treatment the best that modern medicine has developed for the preservation of your hair. There is no excuse today except ignorance for any man or woman to neglect seborrhea and pay the penalty of hair loss.

COMATE IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

To you we offer this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE. Treat your scalp to Comate in your own home, following the simple directions. See for yourself in your own mirror how after a few treatments, Comate makes your hair look thicker and alive. How Comate ends your dandruff, stops your scalp itch. How Comate gives your hair a chance to grow. Most men and women report results after the first treatment, some take longer. But we say this to you. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the improvement in your own case — AT ANY TIME — return the unused portion for a prompt refund. No questions asked.

But don't delay. For the sake of your hair, order Comate today. Nothing — not even Comate — can grow hair from dead follicles. Fill out the coupon now, and take the first step toward a good head of hair again.

"My hair had been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years and Comate has improved it so much." —Mrs. J. E. Lisbon, Ga.

"It really has improved my hair in one week, and I know what the result will be in three more. I am so happy over it, I had to write!" —Mrs. H. J. McComb, Miss.

"I've used a good many different 'tonics.' But until I tried Comate, I had no results. Now I'm rid of dandruff, and itchy scalp. My hair looks thicker." —G. E., Alberta, Canada to be running from the challenges of Robert Fuller and Bob Armstrong, a talented and great combination.

CORRESPONDENT REPORTS

Larry Hennig (above) and Ricky Romero (below) saw their great tag team crumble before the eyes as a disagreement cost them not only a victory but perhaps the future of their tag team as well!

ROCKY MOUNTAIN REPORT
By Kirby Rodgers

Ricky Romero has had his hands full the past few months. He's been trying to find a partner to help him wipe out the team of Black Gordman and Goliath. So far his luck has been nil.

His latest attempt at a partner was Larry "The Axe" Hennig. It almost became a fatal mistake for Ricky.

Hennig and Romero dominated the first fall, working like a well-oiled machine. But the second fall saw the advantage go the other way and trouble began. Hennig was stopped and Romero did nothing to help.

"I follow the rules," Rick said. "I had no right to come in and help you." That was the end of the team. For during the third fall there was a massive fallout and it cost them the victory!

In a classic match, Ray Stevens clashed with Lord Al Hays. Believe it or not, they both wrestled on a good scientific keel until Stevens began using his dirty tactics. It turned into a real bruisin' battle with Stevens coming out on top.

A sensational six-man tag featuring the super team of Billy Graham, Dusty Rhodes and Andre The Giant, against the team of Baron Von Raschke, Horst Hoffman and Boris Breshnikov, saw the popular side win over the men in Bobby Heenan's stable.

Nick Bockwinkle got Ivan Putski so upset Ivan was disqualified in their contest . . . Greg Gagne stopped Geoff Portz . . . Buddy Wolff and Jim Brunzell wrestled to a draw. □

STREET FIGHT

The sound of tearing clothes can be heard throughout the arena as Cholak and Gomez go after the Legionnaires (above and below) and win the bout.

action from wrestling's first street-fight match—action you weren't supposed to see!

"This is the craziest thing ever," said Pepper Gomez in the dressing room. "I usually take about 15 minutes to check any wrestling gear. Today, I'm not going to be wearing any!"

"I know what you mean," chimed in partner Moose Cholak. "It's strange. I usually go into the ring wearing nothing but a pair of wrestling trunks. And I don't think twice about the way I look. Today, I've got to check if my damn tie is on straight or not!"

The two teams marched down the center aisle toward the squared circle. Gomez and Cholak stook in one corner as The Legionnaires, Don Fargo and Jacques Goulet, climbed through the ropes.

"I hope they wrestle better than they dress," was Fargo's remark. The bell rang and this strange bout began.

Cholak started after Fargo as Gomez and Goulet battled. The four men ripped at various parts of clothing, trying to end the bout quickly.

The first piece of clothing to go was Goulet's shirt. Moose pulled it off Jacques' back and he held the garment high, like a captured flag. As Moose was doing this, Goulet ripped off Cholak's pants!

Before the bout was over, it was Don Fargo who had the most embarrassing moment. Cholak grabbed a handful of Don's pants and pulled. And Fargo was left standing there wearing nothing but a bright blush!

It wasn't long after that when Gomez and Cholak gained the final advantage. Knowing well they were out-clothed, The Legionnaires exited from the ring and saved themselves any further embarrassment.

Gomez and Cholak stood with hands upraised in victory. What was left of their wardrobe was a tattered mess.

"Hey," Pepper said to Moose, "it looks like you've just been in a street-fight!"

He just was! □

to defeating a single opponent.

The night of the match, the arena was packed with anxious fans. Thousands were worried they'd lose the privilege of watching Rivera wrestle in their area. The threat of Victor's expulsion hung over the crowd like a sword.

When the match began, it seemed Victor's fans had little to worry about. Rivera charged his opponent with skilled ferocity. He and Valentine battled furiously for almost 15 minutes. By that time Valentine's face was a mask of blood.

The referee saw the injury and decided to end the bout, making Rivera the winner. Yet Victor wanted to inflict even more punishment on his victim, a man who has tortured hundreds of weaker men.

The referee tried to step between the wrestlers but Rivera pushed the official away. When the referee again tried to step between them, Rivera punched him, sending him reeling across the canvas. When the referee cleared his head, he disqualified Rivera awarding the bout to Valentine.

It took Victor a few seconds to realize the enormity of what had happened. Because he lost his temper, he'd now have to leave town! He had snatched defeat right from the jaws of victory!

Victor walked disconsolately back to the dressing room, a man beaten by himself!

As the fans left the arena, many were wiping tears from their eyes. □

GAL RIOT

teams marched purposefully down the aisle toward the field of battle, the excitement grew to a fever pitch. Hatred provided an electricity which was felt by everyone present!

When the bell pealed, Evelyn and Belle tore into each other like starving lionesses. The action grew furiously as they matched maneuvers with savage ferocity. When the pair tagged their partners, Sue and Moolah more than equaled their associates in the brilliant execution of wrestling tactics.

The match continued at its fantastic pace for over 20 minutes with neither team gaining a real advantage. Even when one pair managed to put the other on the defensive, the attack couldn't be sustained. It looked like a draw until Sue and Evelyn exploded. Then it looked like a massacre!

Belle Starr shows Evelyn no mercy as the blonde's head is slammed into Belle's knee. The victim is almost knocked out from the force of the kick.

Sue flipped Moolah to the ground. Hurt, the victim had difficulty getting up. She didn't get up in time to prevent Green from crashing down upon her.

Belle came in to help her partner. Soon all four girls were mixing it up with Sue and Evelyn doing most of the damage. After trying and failing to mount an offensive, Belle and Moolah fled back to the dressing room.

Sue and Evelyn, killer lust flowing through their veins, followed mercilessly. Moolah and Belle weren't even allowed the sanctuary of the dressing room—their opponents came in right after them. Chairs were swung with reckless abandon and lockers were overturned. By the time the special police were able to break up the brawl, the dressing room was a shambles.

"I don't believe it," one guard was heard to mutter after the brawl was stopped. "Those girls are tougher than most of the guys we have to break up! Those women are incredible!" □

ENDORSED BY THE WORLD'S LEADING KARATE CHAMPIONS.

If you had a body like this, would she still play hard-to-get?

Charles Atlas' "Dynamic-Tension" method can give you the body of your dreams (and hers!) — easily, quickly — in just 15 minutes a day. Send for FREE BOOK now!

Start building a great new body from head to toe—right now!

Don't kid yourself any longer. If you're not proud of your body—if nothing happens when you "make a muscle"—if the only attention you get is ridicule and abuse—if the other fellows walk off with the prettiest girls and the best jobs—if nothing you ever tried before has worked—things can start changing for you, right here and now. Just fill in and mail the coupon for FREE proof how "Dynamic-Tension" can turn your "no body" into SOME BODY in just 15 minutes a day!

"My 'Dynamic-Tension' method works—FAST! It works for weak men—young and old, fat and skinny—men who had all but given up on having a really great body. Believe me, I know, because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound, half-alive weakling myself. I feared going to the beach—I couldn't even face going to a movie with a girl on a Tuesday night!"

The discovery that changed Charles Atlas' life can now change yours, too.

"One day, I had a brainstorm that soon transformed me from a scarecrow into 'The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man.' I call it 'DYNAMIC-TENSION'—a natural method with no gadgets, gimmicks or contraptions of any kind. Your own body motions actually wake up the 'sleeping' muscles already present in your body, building up steadily, every day, even when you're walking, bending, reaching or even just sitting! Before you know it, you're covered with solid, rippling muscles — hard as a rock!"

Just 15 minutes a day can do it for YOU!

Don't believe in miracles? You will when you see your chest and shoulders bulging with solid muscle. You will when your fists suddenly develop sledgehammer strength. You will when you feel great new power and endurance surge forth from your legs and arms! You'll see and feel RESULTS IN 7 DAYS!

Prove it to yourself NOW!
